

RCMP lays more charges against priest

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police "B" Division General Investigation Section in St. John's has laid additional charges against Father Ronald M. Bromley as a result of a further complaint from a former resident of the Whitbourne School for Boys, Whitbourne, Newfoundland.

Father Ronald Bromley, 61, formerly of Brigus, Newfoundland is further charged with one count each of gross indecency, indecent assault, and buggery in relation to events which allegedly occurred between April 9, 1980 and Feb. 14, 1984.

The victim was between 12 and 16 years of age at the time of the alleged assaults.

Father Bromley is scheduled to appear for first appearance at Markland Provincial Court at 10 a.m. Nov. 5, 1997 to answer to these charges.
