

Below

By GORD LOMER

THE HILL

By GORD LOMER

NAMES IN THE NEWS: Manson Campbell, owner of Campbell Motors, has been watching the digging in front of his Laurier Avenue car lot for so long now that officials of Beaver Construction presented him with a silver safety helmet with his name inscribed. He's now official sidewalk superintendent of the job . . . Platoon Chief Roy Duncan of the Fire Department is guest speaker at Tuesday's meeting of Lions at the Chateau. He'll have to split the bill with voluptuous singer Toni Carroll, who's also scheduled to appear for the Lions . . . Roy's also booked as guest speaker at Monday's meeting of the Progress Club, all in the interests of Fire Prevention Week . . . Travel man Miles Allan back from a visit to Hong Kong, Tokyo and points east . . . Lyle Blackwell, chairman of the Commercial and Industrial Development Corporation, is guest speaker at Monday's Rotary meeting at the Chateau . . . Capt. Stu Faraday of the Fire Department, another Fire Prevention Week speaker. He's at the Optimist meeting at the Chateau Monday . . . Baz Garrison on the mend after a hospital visit . . . Rev. Dale Crampton at St. Margaret Mary's parish and Rev. John Beahen of St. Elizabeth's heading for New York for the Pope's visit. Father Crampton will be sending back radio reports for CFRA . . . Rev. Leonard Bacon, director of church extension for the United Church, is guest speaker at Tuesday's meeting of South Ottawa Kiwanis.