THE CHAIR: Both Acts?

MS FURNESS: Yes, Your Honour. As I indicated, this is the 16th case study the subject of public hearing by the Royal Commission, and the first public hearing in Victoria. It concerns the Melbourne Response, which is a process established by the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne to respond to those who have been relevantly for this Royal Commission sexually abused by priests, religious and lay persons under the control of the Archbishop of Melbourne.

The case study will explore the experiences of three people who have participated in the Melbourne Response or otherwise sought redress from the Archdiocese at various times since it began in October 1996.

There has been no formal or external review of the Melbourne Response since it began. There have, however, been increases in the cap of ex gratia compensation payments from time to time and the terms of conditions of those appointed to administer the Melbourne Response were slightly amended on two occasions.

The Royal Commission is aware that there are significant other issues in Victoria in relation to the Catholic Church. Depending upon the time available to the Royal Commission and other demands, there will be other public hearings in Victoria which concern the Catholic Church.

Now, turning then to the subject of this hearing, that is the Melbourne Response, Mr Richard Leder, a partner of Corrs Chambers Westgarth, the Archdiocese's solicitors, will give evidence that since about 1992 he has acted on behalf of the Archdiocese. The Royal Commission will hear that in the early 1990s an increasing number of plaintiffs were commencing civil proceedings in which they alleged they were the victims of sexual abuse by priests and other religious. Mr Leder's evidence will be that these claims were defended on various bases, including that the relevant offender was not under the jurisdiction or subject to the supervision of the Archbishop of Melbourne or indeed the Archdiocese or that the defendants did not have a legal responsibility for the illegal acts of accused priests.

Mr Leder's recollection as set out in his statement is

1 that from about 1992 or 1993 the Archdiocese Pastoral 2 Response Office provided support and counselling to victims
3 under the then Vicar-General, Monsignor Cudmore.

5 Archbishop Pell was installed as the Archbishop of 6 Melbourne on 16 August 1996. It is expected that Cardinal
7 Pell will give evidence that at that time it was his view 8 that arrangements within the Archdiocese for responding to 9 and assisting victims of child sexual abuse were 10 insufficient to ensure a compassionate, effective and 11 consistent response.
12

13 Mr Leder is expected to give evidence that during a 14 meeting with Archbishop Pell in July 1996 the Archbishop 15 said he wanted to remove the function of receiving 16 complaints of abuse from the Vicar General's office and 17 proposed a new process for dealing with complaints. There 18 were discussions in August with Mr Leder, Archbishop Pell 19 and the Archdiocese's business adviser, Mr Ted Exell, and 20 various others, including Canon Law advisers regarding a 21 proposed special investigator. These discussions 22 culminated in a document entitled "Special Issues Four Part 23 Plan - 14 August 1996". This was the first of seven drafts 24 of the Four Part Plan.

26 Mr Leder is expected to give evidence that during the 27 development of that plan he was asked to and reviewed the 28 then draft "Towards Healing" document. He considered the 29 differences between that and the Four Part Plan, and then 30 further considered a later review of Towards Healing.
31

32 In late October 1996 Archbishop Pell announced a plan 33 detailing the Melbourne Archdiocese response to victims of 34 sexual abuse by priests, religious and lay persons under 35 the control of the Archbishop of Melbourne. This 36 subsequently became known as "the Melbourne Response".
37

38 Now, that response adopted the goals set out in a 1996
39 pastoral letter from the Australian Catholic Bishops 40 Conference addressing the issue of sexual abuse by priests
41 and religious. Those goals were: truth, humility, healing 42 for victims, assistance to other persons affected and 43 adequate response to those accused and to offenders and the 44 prevention of any such offences in the future.
45

46 The Royal Commission is familiar with these goals from 47 case studies 4 and 8 as they are the principles that

1 underpinned the Towards Healing protocol.

2 When it began, ex gratia compensation payments were 3 capped at $50,000. This amount increased to $55,000 in the 4 year 2000 and again to $75,000 in 2008. On 4 April this 5 year the current Archbishop, Archbishop Denis Hart, 6 announced that he intends to hold a consultation process 7 relating to the Melbourne Response which would consider the 8 cap on ex gratia payments, how such payments are determined 9 and whether past cases should be reviewed.

11 The Royal Commission will hear evidence from Mr Leder, 12 Cardinal Pell and Archbishop Hart regarding the 13 establishment and operation of the Melbourne Response as 14 well as, in relation to Archbishop Hart, the work he has 15 done thus far in the consultation process he spoke of in 16 April of this year.

18 Now, in relation to the Independent Commissioners, and 19 that is a term of art in the document, the Royal Commission 20 will hear evidence that during the development of the Four 21 Part Plan it was proposed that Peter O'Callaghan QC be 22 appointed as the Independent Commissioner. Mr Leder is 23 expected to give evidence that Mr O'Callaghan recommended 24 that the terms of his appointment be discussed with the 25 Victorian police. Mr Leder's evidence is expected to be 26 that the draft terms of appointment were provided to the 27 then Assistant Commissioner Brown, who was supportive of 28 the proposed appointment, but recommended that there be an 29 express requirement on the Independent Commissioner to 30 encourage complainants to report matters to the police.

31
32 Now, as Your Honour and the Commissioners will be 33 aware from previous case studies, the law differs between 34 Victoria and New South Wales as to the obligation to report 35 matters that involve a serious indictable offence or might 36 involve such an offence to the police.

38 Mr O'Callaghan was appointed in October 1996 as 39 Independent Commissioner and he remains in that role today.

40
41 From time to time he was assisted by a counsel
42 assisting, Mr Jeffery Gleeson. As counsel assisting 43 Mr O'Callaghan in his fact finding function, Mr Gleeson was 44 responsible for appearing at contested hearings which 45 occurred in cases where the alleged perpetrator denied the 46 allegations. I will say more about those later.

1 In July 2012 Mr Gleeson, having since been appointed 2 silk, was appointed as an Independent Commissioner. The 3 initial appointment of Mr O'Callaghan was for a period of 4 six months on the basis that the issue to which his job was 5 directed may well have been finalised within that time.
6 His appointment was since subsequently extended.

8 The Independent Commissioner's role is to inquire into 9 the allegations, consult with the accused, the complainant, 10 relevant witnesses and make a determination based on the 11 evidence, refer the complainant to Carelink, refer upheld 12 complaints to the Compensation Panel and make 13 recommendations to the Archbishop about accused persons, 14 particularly where they are still in active ministry.

16 In relation to the police, the terms and conditions of 17 Mr O'Callaghan's initial appointment provided that 18 immediately on receiving a complaint he would inform the 19 complainant of his or her unfettered and continuing right 20 to report the matter to police and he was to appropriately 21 encourage the exercise of that right and not act to prevent 22 any police action in respect of allegations of sexual abuse 23 by church personnel.
24

25 Mr O'Callaghan is expected to give evidence that the 26 terms and conditions of his appointment in October 1996 are 27 the primary sources of the procedures he follows. Those 28 terms were amended in 2002 to include physical and 29 emotional abuse, and further amended in 2011 to provide 30 that the Independent Commissioner would endeavour to meet 31 regularly with the police and, if the complainant chose to 32 go to the police, he would generally take no further steps.
33

34 The two current Independent Commissioners accept that 35 they are subject to the rules of natural justice and to 36 canon law. Both hold delegations from the Archbishop of 37 Melbourne to conduct preliminary investigations pursuant to 38 canon 1717 of the Code of Canon Law 1983. That code 39 governs how a preliminary investigation into a delict, 40 which is a crime under canon law, is to be carried out and 41 by whom.
42

43 The Royal Commission will hear evidence from 44 Mr O'Callaghan and Mr Gleeson regarding their roles in the 45 Melbourne Response as well as evidence from Archbishop Hart 46 regarding the Archdiocese's role and the function carried 47 out by the Independent Commissioners.

2 Carelink, one of the other limbs of the Melbourne 3 Response, is an Archdiocese funded service which 4 facilitates and coordinates the provision of counselling, 5 medical and other professional support services for victims 6 of abuse by priests, religious and lay people who are or 7 were under the control of the Archbishop of Melbourne.
8 These services are provided at no cost to the victims and 9 include payments for medication.

11 Carelink is coordinated by a Ms Susan Sharkey, a 12 consulting psychologist. She has been in this role from 13 1996 to 2001 and then, after a couple of years break, from 14 2003 to date.

15
16 Archbishop Pell appointed Professor Richard Ball as 17 the support professional responsible for the profession of 18 treatment, counselling and support to victims on the 19 commencement of the Melbourne Response. Professor Ball 20 later became director of Carelink.

22 Each client of Carelink is assessed and interviewed so 23 that their needs can be identified. They are referred to 24 psychiatrists, psychologists and other health care 25 professionals who have an appropriate background and 26 expertise to address sexual and other abuse. Carelink 27 receives regular reports from treating therapists so that a 28 client's treatment can be monitored. If a complainant has 29 their own counsellor or psychiatric care before coming to 30 Carelink and that therapist is able to work with the 31 complainant in relation to the abuse issues, Carelink sets 32 up a process to fund and support those processes.

34 Once referred to Carelink by an Independent
35 Commissioner, a complainant will be assessed by Carelink's 36 consulting psychiatrist and this usually occurs before they 37 go to the Compensation Panel. Carelink's services remain 38 available to complainants after an ex gratia compensation 39 payment has been made and they are also available to family 40 members and others who are affected by such abuse, commonly 41 referred to as "secondary victims". Counselling for what 42 are called secondary victims is not necessarily available 43 on the unlimited basis that it is for those primarily 44 affected.

46 Ms Sharkey's evidence is likely to be that Carelink's 47 policy in relation to claiming Medicare rebates is that

1 clients are only asked to claim psychiatric costs through 2 Medicare. If there is then a gap between the rebate and 3 the actual costs, Carelink covers that gap. Now, this 4 issue arose in respect of the Fosters. Mr Leder is 5 expected to give evidence that in 1997 he wrote to 6 Professor Ball regarding the relationship between Carelink 7 and Medicare, indicating that he had received advice from 8 the Health Insurance Commission confirming that patients 9 who received a medical treatment from service providers 10 external to Carelink should make a claim for those services 11 on Medicare.

13 The Royal Commission will hear evidence from 14 Ms Sharkey regarding her role as coordinator. Professor 15 Richard Ball has been excused from giving evidence on 16 medical grounds.

17
18 As I indicated, following an assessment by Carelink 19 and after a referral by an Independent Commissioner, 20 complainants attend the Compensation Panel. The intended 21 purpose of the Compensation Panel is to provide an 22 alternative to legal proceedings. The panel is intended to 23 operate in an informal way to provide a forum for the 24 settlement of claims. It is not intended to be legalistic.

25
26 It commenced operating in the first half of 1997 and 27 comprises four members: a solicitor, a community 28 representative, a psychiatrist and a chair. With the 29 exception of a short period in the beginning months of the 30 panel, other than the Chair the current members have held 31 their appointments since 1997.

33 The current chair, Mr David Curtain, was appointed in 34 February 2004. The Commission will hear evidence from 35 Mr Curtain regarding his role as chair. His position was 36 held by the Honourable Justice Susan Crennan for the three 37 preceding years, before that the Honourable David 38 Habersberger and then initially the Honourable Alex Chernov 39 held the position

40 41 The Archdiocese meets the professional costs of the 42 panel members. The Chair of the panel is retained by the 43 Archdiocese through its solicitors, Corrs, by way of a 44 brief. Like other limbs of the Melbourne Response, the 45 intention is that the panel operate independently of the 46 Archdiocese. Mr Curtain will give evidence that the 47 Compensation Panel hearings operate without the presence or

1 influence of the Archdiocese or their solicitors. He will 2 also give evidence that before he commenced as chair and in 3 the course of his appointment he has never met or 4 communicated directly with Archbishop Hart.

6 The process is that the chair of the Compensation
7 Panel receives the findings from the Independent 8 Commissioner by way of written reasons for decision, 9 invites complainants to attend the hearing, convenes the 10 panel, including circulating the supporting material, 11 medical reports and the like, conducts the hearing and 12 makes a recommendation to the Archbishop as to the amount 13 of ex gratia compensation to be offered.

15 Mr Curtain is expected to give evidence that after a 16 hearing the panel discusses the appropriate amount and then 17 in doing so discusses both the severity of the abuse and 18 the ongoing effect that the abuse has had on the 19 complainant's life. Mr Curtain will give evidence of the 20 considerations taken into account by the panel.

22 The Royal Commission will hear evidence that it is the 23 Archdiocese's policy to make an offer of ex gratia 24 compensation to complainants in accordance with the panel's 25 recommendation. As I have indicated, the Archdiocese has 26 made an offer in the amount recommended in each case.
27 Those offers are made to the complainants through Corrs, 28 the Archdiocese's solicitor.

30 If an offered payment is accepted, the amount 31 represents a full settlement of all claims against, among 32 others, the Archbishop and the Archdiocese. Claimants are 33 required to sign a deed of release to this effect. It is 34 intended that there be no confidentiality clause in the 35 deeds of release.

37 If the offered payment is not accepted, normal court 38 processes remain available. In these circumstances, if a 39 complainant elects to bring legal proceedings, the 40 Melbourne Response process is to be treated confidentially.

42 I will now turn to those three participants in the 43 Response who will give evidence today. Mrs Christine 44 Foster will give evidence of her and her family's 45 experience with the Melbourne Response, with the decision 46 to cease participating in the Melbourne Response and the 47 civil litigation proceedings that follow.

2 Mrs Foster, together with her husband, Anthony, are 3 parents of three girls: Emma, Katie and Aimee. Mrs Foster 4 will give evidence that two of her three daughters, Emma 5 and Katie, were abused by their parish priest, Father Kevin 6 O'Donnell, when they were students at Sacred Heart Primary 7 School in Oakleigh. The abuse of each of the girls 8 commenced in their early years of primary school and 9 continued for some years. Neither Mrs Foster nor Anthony 10 were aware of the abuse at the time it occurred.
11

12 In 1995, after O'Donnell was charged with some 49 13 child sex offences, Emma was diagnosed with anorexia. In 14 September 1995, after O'Donnell pleaded guilty to various 15 charges, Emma admitted to her general practitioner that she 16 had been experiencing suicidal thoughts. She was 17 subsequently admitted to an adolescent psychiatric unit and 18 remained there for two months. Emma was expelled after a 19 suicide attempt.
20

21 Emma made another attempt at her life in December 22 1995, and again in early 1996. In March 1996 Emma 23 disclosed to her parents that she had been abused by 24 O'Donnell. Mr and Mrs Foster then told their parish 25 priest, Father Ted Teal, about Emma's disclosure.
26 O'Donnell was sentenced in August 1995 to 39 months 27 imprisonment after pleading guilty to 12 counts of indecent 28 assault. He was released from prison on parole in November 29 1996 and died on 11 March 1997. He was buried a priest.
30

31 Mrs Foster will give evidence that in March 1997 a 32 decision was made to go through the Melbourne Response to 33 obtain help for Emma. Emma lodged an application with the 34 help of her parents to the Melbourne Response and on 35 17 March 1997 was interviewed by Mr O'Callaghan. Emma was 36 15 years old at the time.
37

38 Mrs Foster will give evidence that shortly after in 39 April 1997 they consulted a firm of solicitors, Williams 40 Winter & Higgs to see what other options were available and 41 to try to get help for the whole family. The Fosters were 42 told that it would be very difficult to sue the Catholic 43 Church. A suggestion was made that they seek assistance 44 through the Victims of Crime Assistance Tribunal as an 45 alternative to the Melbourne Response. These applications 46 were made in May 1997.
47

1 On 3 October 1997 Mr O'Callaghan wrote to Mr and 2 Mrs Foster informing them that he was satisfied that Emma 3 was sexually abused by O'Donnell. Mr O'Callaghan will give 4 evidence of the process by which he became satisfied of 5 Emma's abuse by O'Donnell.

7 The Fosters were involved with Carelink at this stage
8 and Mrs Foster will give evidence that she and Mr Foster 9 raised objections to the role of Professor Ball at Carelink 10 because Professor Ball had given expert evidence on behalf 11 of O'Donnell in his sentencing hearing.
12

13 Now, in November 1997, while Emma's application was 14 proceeding through the Melbourne Response, Mrs Foster 15 discovered a suicide note written by their second daughter, 16 Katie. The note disclosed that Katie had also been abused 17 by O'Donnell.

19 On 1 December 1997 Mr and Mrs Foster met with 20 Mr O'Callaghan regarding Katie's abuse and in early 1998 21 with her parents' assistance Katie made an application to 22 the Melbourne Response.
23

24 In June the next year, 1998, Mr O'Callaghan sent his 25 report regarding Emma, that is his findings about Emma, to 26 the Compensation Panel and the next month interviewed 27 Katie, together with her psychologist, regarding her abuse.
28 In August the Fosters met with the Compensation Panel about 29 Emma's abuse and shortly thereafter received an offer of 30 $50,000 for Emma. That was then the maximum ex gratia 31 payment made.
32

33 Emma accepted the offer and was forwarded a trust deed 34 by the Archdiocese's lawyers. She did not sign the trust 35 deed. In September 1998 the Fosters applied for 36 compensation under the Melbourne Response and the Royal 37 Commission will hear evidence that this claim was denied 38 because compensation was generally only available for 39 primary victims of abuse and they were considered to be not 40 primary victims of abuse.
41

42 Now, in May 1999 Mr O'Callaghan visited the Foster 43 family home and there will be evidence that during this 44 visit indicated that he would make a finding that O'Donnell 45 had sexually abused Katie. He will give evidence that he 46 was satisfied that O'Donnell had sexually abused Katie, but 47 while he intended to make a formal finding his delay in

1 doing so was in part because he inferred that the Fosters
2 were going to take common law proceedings.

4 At the end of that month, in May 1999, Katie was 5 significantly injured after being hit by a car. The 6 accident left her with permanent brain damage and requiring 7 24-hour care. She was hospitalised for close to one year.

9 Now, in September 2000, some 15 or so months later, 10 the solicitors for the Fosters wrote to Mr O'Callaghan 11 asking him to confirm his previous verbal advice concerning 12 a finding about Katie. The letter also said that Emma was 13 still considering the offer made to her, because while Emma 14 had in writing accepted it, she had not signed the trust 15 deed which was necessary to formally accept the offer.

17 Mrs Foster will give evidence that between 1997 and 18 1999 she and her husband exchanged much correspondence with 19 their solicitors regarding their options for seeking 20 compensation and in February 1999 at a meeting with their 21 lawyers they confirmed they wished to pursue legal action 22 rather than continue through the Melbourne Response or the 23 Victims of Crime Assistance Tribunal.

25 So, in 2002 they gave instructions to commence civil 26 litigation proceedings on behalf of each of them and their 27 children and they commenced action against the principal of 28 the primary school the girls attended; Sir Frank Little, 29 the then Archbishop of Melbourne at the time of the abuse;
30 the current Archbishop of Melbourne; the Roman Catholic 31 Trust Corporation for the Archdiocese; a former Vicar 32 General and a Father Anthony Guelen. Corrs ultimately had 33 instructions to act for each of those defendants.

35 The claims for damages made by Emma and Katie related 36 to the consequences of their sexual abuse by O'Donnell.
37 The claims for damages made by Mr and Mrs Foster and their 38 third daughter, Aimee, were on the basis that they suffered 39 nervous shock as a result of the abuse of Emma and Katie.
40 In their defence each of the defendants did not admit the 41 sexual abuse of Emma and Katie.

42
43 Archbishop Hart and Mr Leder are expected to give 44 evidence regarding the defence of this litigation, 45 including the decision not to admit the abuse of Emma and 46 Katie and the denial of the consequential shock, personal 47 injury, loss and damage.

2 Now, in the period from late 2003 to late 2004
3 statements of claim, defences, amended statements of claim
4 and amended defences were filed and served. In March 2005 5 there were discussions between the solicitors for the 6 Fosters and Mr Leder about whether their respective clients 7 would be willing to attend a without prejudice meeting.
8 That took place some months later in June of that year and 9 then in November of that year, 2005, those discussions 10 continued by way of formal mediation.
11

12 The mediation resulted in an out of court settlement 13 being reached. It was agreed that the Fosters would 14 receive the sum of $750,000 plus their legal costs.
15 Mr Leder will give evidence that this sum included 16 provision for medical expenses for the Fosters and 17 therefore in January 2006 he advised both Carelink and the 18 Fosters' solicitors that, because of that, Carelink would 19 cease paying the Fosters' medical expenses.
20

21 Mrs Foster will give evidence of the impact of 22 O'Donnell's sexual abuse on Katie and Emma and the family.
23 Up to the mediation in November 2005 Emma had at least 900
24 doctors, specialists and pathology visits, at least 75
25 outpatient psychology appointments and some 52 admissions 26 to hospital, detox and rehabilitation clinics. Emma never 27 recovered from the sexual abuse she suffered. In January 28 2008 she took her own life.
29

30 Mrs Foster will give evidence that Katie took to binge 31 drinking to escape the memories of her abuse and that Katie 32 will always require 24-hour care after being hit by a car 33 after binge drinking in 1999. She will also give evidence 34 that their third daughter, Aimee, has suffered since the 35 age of 10, witnessing the impact of sexual abuse on her 36 sisters' lives.
37

38 In 2009 Mrs Foster co-authored a book with Paul 39 Kennedy titled "Hell on the Way to Heaven" regarding the 40 impact of the sexual abuse of Emma and Katie and the 41 Church's response on her family.
42

43 The Royal Commission will then hear from Paul 44 Hersbach. Mr Hersbach was sexually abused by Father Victor 45 Rubeo from 1985 to 1988. Mr Hersbach was 8 to 11 years of 46 age at the time and Father Rubeo had played a significant 47 role in the life of the Hersbach family.

2 When Mr Hersbach was 16 years old his father told him 3 that he, his father, had been sexually abused by Rubeo when 4 he was a child. In 1996 Rubeo pleaded guilty to two counts
5 of indecent assault against Mr Hersbach's father and uncle, 6 his father's twin brother. In 2010 fresh charges were laid
7 against Rubeo in respect of his abuse of Mr Hersbach's 8 father and uncle and on 16 December 2011, the day that he 9 was to appear in court for his committal, Rubeo died.

11 Mr Hersbach will give evidence that his first 12 encounter with the Melbourne Response was as a secondary 13 victim arising from his father's abuse. Mr Hersbach 14 attended Carelink in his early 20s. He was encouraged to 15 access counselling services through Carelink and did so off 16 and on for about 15 years.

18 On 1 March 2006 he disclosed in counselling that 19 Mr Rubeo had abused him. He was told to see the 20 Independent Commissioner, Mr O'Callaghan. He met 21 Mr O'Callaghan later in March of that year, 2006, and he 22 will give evidence as to his discussions with 23 Mr O'Callaghan about going to the police. He will say that 24 Mr O'Callaghan told him that he could go to the police if 25 he wanted, but that based on what Mr Hersbach had told him 26 he didn't think anything would happen. Mr Hersbach did not 27 approach the police.

28
29 Mr O'Callaghan will give evidence in relation to what 30 he tells those who come to him in respect of going to the 31 police.

32
33 Mr Hersbach will say that he left the meeting unaware 34 whether his story had been accepted, but about six weeks
35 later he received a letter from Mr O'Callaghan which said 36 in part, "With respect to the unsurprising haziness of your 37 memory there would not appear to be much point in your 38 taking the matter to the police. However, that is a matter 39 for you." The letter continued that, assuming Mr Hersbach 40 was not going to take the matter to the police, 41 Mr O'Callaghan was satisfied that he was a victim of Rubeo 42 and referred him to the Compensation Panel.

44 On 31 October 2006, Mr Hersbach met with the 45 Compensation Panel, chaired by Mr Curtain, and that meeting 46 took place in Carelink's offices. The next month he 47 received an offer of compensation for $17,500 and enclosed

1 with that offer was a deed of release for him to sign. He 2 also received a letter of apology from Archbishop Hart. He 3 will give evidence that he found the sentiments and the 4 statements within that letter to be generic.

6 He did not accept the offer of compensation for more 7 than a year. He will give evidence that ultimately signing 8 the offer became part of his healing process and in 9 November 2007 he signed the deed and received the 10 compensation

12 He will give evidence of the impact of Rubeo's sexual 13 abuse on his life. He considered himself lucky, as he has 14 learnt how to cope and how to recognise what triggers his 15 emotions.

17 The third complainant who will give evidence today is 18 known by the pseudonym [AFA] and shortly, Your Honour, I 19 will hand up an order in respect of that.

21 [AFA] was sexual abused by Father Michael Glennon on 22 three occasions over a period of 18 months when he was 23 about 15 years old. He will give evidence that he first 24 met Glennon when he was 14 years of age at a karate school 25 Glennon had opened at his local parish, St Gabriel's.
26 [AFA] saw Glennon as a father figure.

28 It was not until he was in his early 40s that he 29 disclosed his abuse to his counsellor. He will give 30 evidence that in 2011 he saw a brochure for the Melbourne 31 Response at his local church and he called the number 32 listed. He spoke with Mr O'Callaghan and made an 33 appointment to meet him. He went to Mr O'Callaghan's 34 chambers in February of that year and will give evidence 35 that during the meeting he said to Mr O'Callaghan, among 36 other matters, that if there was any chance of putting 37 Glennon back in prison he thought he would go to the 38 police.

39
40 [AFA] will give evidence that Mr O'Callaghan told him
41 that, if he took his matter to the police, Mr O'Callaghan 42 would not be able to investigate his matter while the 43 police process was ongoing. [AFA] felt discouraged from 44 going to the police. Mr O'Callaghan is expected to give 45 evidence that he is concerned that [AFA] thought he was 46 being discouraged because that was not his intention; 47 rather, he was endeavouring to provide [AFA] with the 1 relevant criteria to consider in deciding whether to go to 2 the police.

4 In February 2011 [AFA] was told by Mr O'Callaghan in 5 writing that he was satisfied that [AFA] was a victim of 6 abuse and he was told he could go to Carelink and the 7 Compensation Panel.

9 In April he met Ms Sharkey and Dr Brann, the 10 consulting psychiatrist at Carelink, and he took his wife 11 with him. He will give evidence that he was asked about 12 the abuse by Glennon, its impact on his life. He will say 13 he found the meeting confronting.

15 He met with the Compensation Panel the next month in 16 May 2011 and he found that daunting. The next month, June 17 2011, he received an offer of compensation in the amount of 18 $50,000. Now, at this time compensation payments were 19 capped at $75,000. He was not given any explanation as to 20 how the offer of $50,000 was calculated.

22 He didn't consider the offer adequate and he wrote to 23 Mr Leder saying so and saying that he was rejecting the 24 offer and that he may commence legal proceedings. Mr Leder 25 is expected to give evidence that he responded that the 26 offer was not a starting point for negotiations and the 27 original offer remained open. He could not make it higher.

28
29 On 5 July he accepted the offer of compensation.

30
31 After the Melbourne Response process finalised, [AFA] 32 reported his abuse to the police. Glennon was charged and 33 was to face trial in relation to his abuse of [AFA] in June 34 2014. However, on 1 January this year he died while still 35 in prison for other child sexual abuse offences.

37 On 17 April 2012, through the Governor in Council, the 38 Victorian Government requested that the joint investigatory 39 Family and Community Development Committee inquire into the 40 handling of child abuse by religious and other 41 non-governmental organisations. That committee received 42 submissions and heard evidence in relation to the Melbourne 43 Response, including from the Foster family. Its report was 44 tabled in November last year and recommendations were made 45 in a number of areas, including reforming the criminal law, 46 access to civil litigation and the like.

1 As with the case studies heard in relation to the 2 Towards Healing, the Royal Commission requested data from 3 the Archdiocese of Melbourne concerning the Melbourne 4 Response since it began in October 1996 and that data was 5 provided with an end date of 31 March 2014.

7 Now, that data reveals that 351 complaints have been 8 made to the Melbourne Response in that time. Of these 9 complaints, 326 were upheld by an Independent Commissioner, 10 nine were not upheld and 16 are currently defined as being 11 undetermined. The undetermined claims are either dormant, 12 ongoing, the complainant is deceased or the complainant is 13 described as considering civil proceedings.

15 Of the 326 complaints which have been upheld six were 16 subsequently settled outside of the Melbourne Response.
17 80 per cent of the 326 complaints related to alleged 18 incidents of child sexual abuse that occurred from 1950 to 19 1980 inclusive. Fourteen per cent related to alleged 20 incidents that occurred from 1981 to 1990 inclusive, and 21 two per cent relate to alleged incidents that occurred from 22 1991 to 2006 inclusive.

24 The remaining four per cent of those upheld related to 25 incidents that occurred from 1937 to 1949. No upheld 26 complaints relate to incidents of child sexual abuse that 27 is reported to have occurred after 2006.

28
29 The two institutions in the Melbourne Archdiocese
30 subject to the largest numbers of Melbourne Response 31 complaints are the Sacred Heart Primary School and the 32 Sacred Heart Parish, both in Oakleigh. Sacred Heart Parish 33 and Primary School together are subject to at least 19
34 complaints. Kevin O'Donnell is the subject of 18 of the 19 35 complaints in relation to the school and parish. The one 36 complaint that did not name O'Donnell relates to an unknown 37 accused.

38 39 Seventy-seven individuals have been named as the 40 subject of one or more of the 326 upheld complaints. Of 41 these, just over half, 42, are known by the Archdiocese to 42 be dead. Some, including those who have left the clergy, 43 will also be deceased without the Archdiocese necessarily 44 knowing.

46 The data provided indicated that the most common 47 position held by church personnel subject to a Melbourne

1 Response complaint at the time of the alleged incident was 2 a diocesan priest; 84 per cent.

4 The two accused the subject of the largest number of 5 complaints to the Melbourne Response are: Kevin O'Donnell, 6 with 50 complaints made, 50 complaints upheld for alleged 7 abuse from 1944 to 1992; Michael Glennon, with 23 8 complaints made and 21 upheld for alleged abuse spanning 9 the period 1959 to 1991.

11 The data provided to the Royal Commission by the 12 Archdiocese reveals that the total compensation amount paid
13 to 31 March 2014 within the Melbourne Response in respect 14 of O'Donnell was $1.886 million, accounting for almost 15 20 per cent of all compensation paid by the Melbourne 16 Response.

18 The counselling and expense costs relating to those 19 complaints again settled within the Melbourne Response was 20 some $280,000, which is about 12 per cent of the reported 21 total Carelink costs concerning complaints made within the 22 Melbourne Response. So the total compensation and 23 counselling paid through the Melbourne Response in relation 24 to O'Donnell is $2.166 million, noting that additional 25 complaints have been settled outside the Melbourne
26 Response.

28 When you look at those totals of complaints settled in 29 and out of the Melbourne Response up to March 2014 the 30 amount is $2.934 million, which is about $2.5 million in 31 compensation and just over 375 in counselling.

33 The data provided to the Royal Commission reveals that 34 from October 1996 to the end of March this year the average 35 compensation payment amount paid is $36,100, $33,187 for 36 those claims settled within the response, $168,000 for 37 those that began within the Melbourne Response but settled 38 outside, and just short of $300,000 for those outside the 39 Melbourne Response.

40 41 Since the cap increased to $75,000 the total amount of 42 compensation paid to 65 victims of child sexual abuse has 43 been $3.3 million, the average compensation payment being 44 just over $50,000. 201 of the 301 claims paid within the 45 Melbourne Response were completely or partially indemnified
46 by the Catholic Church insurance company. The data 47 provided indicated that a third of the claims reported to

1 be paid within the Melbourne Response were paid in full by 2 the Archdiocese and were not indemnified by CCI.

4 The total amount paid until the end of March 2014 in 5 the Melbourne Response is $9.723 million by way of ex 6 gratia compensation. $1.63 million has been paid by way of 7 compensation outside the Melbourne Response, with a total 8 of $11.354 million. Carelink medical consultation, 9 counselling and treatment costs amounted to $7.385 million, 10 and medical consultation, counselling and treatment costs 11 paid by the Archdiocese and not costed to Carelink amounted 12 to an additional $150,000-odd.

14 The calculation as a result of all of those figures is 15 that the total of ex gratia payments made under the 16 Melbourne Response for child sexual abuse claims and 17 amounts paid for medical counselling and treatment amounted 18 to $17.259 million. The cost of administering the 19 Melbourne Response was $17.011 million. This includes 20 Independent Commissioner costs of $7.794 million, 21 Compensation Panel costs of just under half a million and 22 Carelink costs of $3.766 million.

24 As I indicated earlier, this case study is designed to 25 explore the issue of redress. As Your Honour and the Royal 26 Commissioners are aware, the Royal Commission has indicated 27 that it intends to make recommendations in relation to 28 redress before the end of this financial year. The issues 29 that this case study will give rise to which will assist in 30 that process include the independence of a redress scheme; 31 criteria for determining the amounts of compensation; the 32 involvement of the responsible church authority in a 33 redress scheme; separation of the responsible church 34 authority from investigation, assessment, determination of 35 complaints; legal representation of complainants in a 36 redress scheme; pastoral expectations of complainants and 37 how they might be met; use and terms of deeds of release; 38 and the relationship between redress and civil litigation.
39

40 Now, would Your Honour consider a short adjournment
41 before I call the first witness, who will be Mrs Foster?
42

43 THE CHAIR: Very well. You let us know when you are 44 ready.
45

46 MS FURNESS: Thank you, Your Honour.
47

1 SHORT ADJOURNMENT

3 MS FURNESS: I call Christine Ann Foster. Her husband, 4 Anthony Foster, is sitting as a support --

6 THE CHAIR: I'm sorry?

8 MS FURNESS: Her husband, Anthony, is sitting as her 9 support next to her.

10

11 THE CHAIR: Yes. I don't know who is in charge of the 12 system, but sometimes you drop in and out.

14 MS FURNESS: Yes, I've been told that. I understand 15 somebody was looking into it, Your Honour.

17 THE CHAIR: Yes.

18

19 <CHRISTINE ANN FOSTER, affirmed [11.15am]

20

21 <EXAMINATION BY MS FURNESS:

22

23 MS FURNESS: Q. Would you tell the Royal Commission your 24 full name and occupation?

25 A. My full name is Christine Ann Foster and I'm retired.

26

27 Q. Mrs Foster, you prepared a statement dated 19 July 28 this year for the Royal Commission?

29 A. Yes.

30

31 Q. Do you have a copy of that with you?

32 A. I do.

34 Q. There are a number of matters I think you wish to 35 revise in it. Can I take you first to paragraph 25?

36 A. Yes.

38 Q. On the first line there's reference to a "Monsignor 39 General Cudmore". That should be Monsignor Gerald Cudmore?

40 A. Yes.

42 Q. Then paragraph 38?

43 A. Yes.

45 Q. The name of the Victorian Police liaison officer has 46 been redacted?

47 A. That's correct.

2 Q. Paragraph 45. You wish to delete "application for 3 compensation form" where it appears in the second and third 4 line; is that right?
5 A. Yes.
7 Q. And replace it with "consent to Independent 8 Commissioner form"?
9 A. That's correct.
11 Q. On paragraph 49 there's two errors you wish to 12 correct, as I understand it. The phrase "was likely to 13 have committed more offences", that's about two-thirds of 14 the way down the paragraph, do you see that?
15 A. Yes.
16
17 Q. You want that changed from "was likely to have 18 committed more offences than he had admitted to in that 19 criminal case", you want that changed to "was likely to 20 have committed more offences than he had admitted to in his 21 criminal case"?
22 A. That's correct.
23
24 Q. Now paragraph 55, in the second last line before the 25 quote you refer to "the other was a young lawyer from 26 Corrs"?
27 A. Yes.
28
29 Q. You want that changed to "the other was a young lawyer 30 I assumed from Corrs"?
31 A. Yes.
32
33 Q. Paragraph 56, about four lines down, you say, 34 "I approached the lawyer from Corrs", do you see that?
35 A. Yes.
37 Q. You wish that to be changed to "I approached the 38 lawyer"?
39 A. Correct.
40 41 Q. Now, with those amendments, Mrs Foster, are the 42 contents of your statement true and correct?
43 A. Yes, they are.
44
45 MS FURNESS: I tender the statement.
46
47 EXHIBIT #16-1 STATEMENT OF CHRISTINE ANN FOSTER, DATED

1 19/7/2014

3 MS FURNESS: Q. Mrs Foster, I invite you to read your 4 statement and I understand Anthony will assist you in that 5 you will read sections of the statement separately?

6 A. Yes.

8 Q. And you will begin.

9 A. I will.

10

11 Q. I invite you to do that.

12 A. Thank you. This statement made by me accurately sets 13 out the evidence that I am prepared to give to the Royal 14 Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual 15 Abuse. The statement is true and correct to the best of my 16 knowledge and belief. Where direct speech is referred to 17 in this statement it is provided in words or words to the 18 effect of those which were used to the best of my 19 recollection. Where I use the expression "we" I am 20 referring to my husband, Anthony John Foster, and myself.

22 Background. My full name is Christine Ann Foster, and 23 my date of birth. I am married to Anthony John Foster.
24 Anthony and I were married on 26 July 1980 in Melbourne, 25 Victoria. Anthony and I had three daughters, Emma born 26 November 1981, Katie born July 1983 and Aimee born in March 27 1985. As young children our daughters were healthy and we 28 lived a happy and successful life in both family and 29 business areas.

30

31 Each of our daughters attended Sacred Heart Catholic 32 Primary School in Oakleigh. Emma began prep in 1987, Katie 33 in 1989 and Aimee in 1990. Beside the school was the 34 Sacred Heart Church and across the road was the presbytery 35 where Father Kevin John O'Donnell lived. He often visited 36 the primary school and its playgrounds.

38 After completing the primary school education, our 39 daughters attended Sacred Heart Girls College.

41 Emma's experience. In March 1985 when Emma was 42 13 years old an article appeared in our local newspaper 43 about O'Donnell. The article stated that O'Donnell was 44 facing 49 charges in relation to sexually abusing boys over 45 a 30-year period. Emma, myself and Anthony all read the 46 article. Anthony and I were both shocked. I questioned 47 Emma at the time whether O'Donnell had ever touched her.

1 Emma did not immediately answer me and, after I asked her 2 three times, finally answered "no".

4 In June 1995, we received a telephone call from one of 5 Emma's teachers informing us that Emma had not eaten her 6 lunch and that some of her friends were worried about her.
7 Some weeks later Emma was diagnosed with anorexia. On 8 5 August 1995 the front page of the Herald-Sun featured a 9 photograph of O'Donnell with the headlines, "Paedophile 10 priest locked up". The article explained that O'Donnell 11 had pleaded guilty to charges of indecent assault between 12 1946 and 1977 against 10 boys and two girls and had been 13 remanded in custody. I read the article that day and 14 struggled to process the words.

16 The article included awful stories of victims' 17 accounts of sexual abuse. It was the first time I learnt 18 that O'Donnell not only abused boys, but girls too.
19 I realised as I was reading the article that the 20 accusations against O'Donnell were no longer accusations 21 but offences O'Donnell had admitted to committing. They 22 were not just allegations, they were truths. The article 23 raised the possibility in my mind that Emma may have been a 24 victim of O'Donnell despite her previously telling me she 25 was not.
26

27 Emma's health continued to deteriorate. In early 28 September 1995 Emma revealed to her GP that she was 29 experiencing suicidal thoughts. The GP informed me and 30 referred Emma to an emergency psychiatric appointment. The 31 GP told me to keep a very close eye on Emma, particularly 32 until the appointment. At that appointment Emma told the 33 psychiatrist that she had previously attempted suicide with 34 an overdose of painkillers.
35

36 On 25 September 1995 Emma was admitted to the 37 adolescent psychiatric unit for anorexia, depression and 38 the earlier suicide attempt. Emma continued to struggle 39 during her time at the unit. We attended many counselling 40 sessions individually and as a family. After two months at 41 the unit Emma was expelled following another suicide 42 attempt. When we brought Emma home her health had not 43 improved and she was in a much worse condition than when 44 she was first admitted to the unit.
45

46 On the morning of 21 December 1995 we woke to discover 47 that Emma had taken an overdose of painkillers. As a

1 result, Emma was hospitalised for two days. Soon after 2 this, Anthony and I took our daughters away for a holiday.
3 At the outset of our time away we experienced a number of 4 concerning incidents with Emma, yet by the end of the trip 5 Emma's outlook changed. She seemed happier and Anthony and 6 I arrived home more hopeful

8 Emma's improvement was short-lived. In early 1996
9 Emma took an overdose of painkillers on two occasions and 10 was eventually readmitted to the adolescent psychiatric 11 unit. Anthony and I spoke to Emma's psychiatrist and 12 expressed our confusion and concern. The psychiatrist told 13 Anthony and me that Emma was displaying all the symptoms of 14 someone who had been sexually abused.
15

16 We relayed what Emma's psychiatrist had told us to our 17 own psychologist. During that conversation our 18 psychologist said words to the following effect: 19

20 I concur with his opinion. I would say 21 that Emma isn't just showing signs of 22 someone who was sexually abused. I would 23 say she was sexually abused. In fact, her 24 behaviour suggests it happened repeatedly.

26 Anthony and I were shocked and we started to wonder who 27 might be responsible. Anthony then said to the 28 psychologist, "What if I told you Emma was the favoured 29 child of a paedophile who is currently in prison?" Anthony 30 and our psychologist then discussed the likelihood that 31 O'Donnell was responsible, but I was not yet convinced.
32 Initially I could not imagine how this could have happened 33 and wondered when O'Donnell was alone with Emma. When 34 I thought about it, I realised that O'Donnell had 35 unfettered access to Emma at school and could have taken 36 her from class or from the school playgrounds without 37 anyone seeking my consent.
38

39 Our psychologist seemed to have some experience with 40 Catholic Church related matters and arranged a meeting for 41 us with Mr Shane Wall on 1 March 1996. While we were not 42 exactly sure of his role and he did not ask to see Emma, 43 after one session with him the Catholic Church began paying 44 for our counselling. We took this to mean that the 45 Catholic Church had accepted responsibility for the abuse.
46

47 In the past I had overheard Emma say a couple of times

1 to other children, "Coke makes me drunk." I had not thought 2 too much of it at the time. In about February 1996 Emma 3 and I had a conversation where she said to me, "Coke used 4 to make me drunk but now it doesn't."

6 Later that same evening I recalled that some years 7 earlier I had overheard a conversation between Emma and 8 Katie. Katie had offered Emma a drink of Coca Cola and 9 Emma said that she did not like the taste of it. Katie 10 seemed surprised by this and insisted that Emma should like 11 it because it tasted nice. Emma relented and took a sip
12 and said to Katie, "It tastes different. It's okay."
13 I then came to the realisation that O'Donnell may well have 14 laced Coca Cola and given it to Emma to drink.

16 The next morning I had a conversation with Emma where 17 I reminded her of our discussion the night before. I asked 18 Emma, "What sort of drunk did the coke make you feel?" Emma 19 considered her answer and replied, "Very drunk and dizzy 20 and it made a loud noise in my ears." She told me this 21 happened in the school hall.

23 Not long after my realisation, Anthony telephoned a 24 police liaison officer familiar with the case against 25 O'Donnell and said, "My wife has told me she thinks 26 O'Donnell might have made Emma drunk when he sexually 27 assaulted her." Anthony then started repeating the words 28 the police officer was saying to him out loud so that 29 I could hear. Anthony said, "He used to drug kids. It was 30 part of his MO."

32 On the evening of 27 March 1996, about one month after 33 Emma's second admission to the psychiatric unit, we 34 received a telephone call from the unit informing us that 35 Emma had cut herself and that she had disclosed to a nurse 36 that she had been sexually abused by O'Donnell.

37

38 The next day I attended a meeting together with 39 Anthony, Emma and her psychologist. The psychologist asked 40 Emma's permission to repeat her disclosure to us and Emma 41 sat in a ball on a chair nodding as the psychologist 42 repeated Emma's account of the sexual abuse by O'Donnell.

44 In addition, Emma told us she remembered a door with a 45 sign "shower" on it beside the stage in the Sacred Heart 46 parish hall. She said O'Donnell took her through the door 47 and into the room. She said that they were alone. She

1 said O'Donnell sat her on his knee and did awful things to 2 her.

4 Some time later photographs were taken of these areas 5 that Emma referred to. We feel sick to think of our 6 daughter alone in there with O'Donnell.

8 The day after Emma's disclosure we telephoned Father 9 Ted Teal, our parish priest. We asked him to come to our 10 house and talk about Emma. At this stage Emma had been in 11 and out of the adolescent psychiatric unit for about six 12 months. We felt we finally had an explanation of her 13 difficulties. We told Father Teal of Emma's disclosure of 14 abuse by O'Donnell. Father Teal was sympathetic, but as he 15 was leaving our home and with his back to us he said, 16 "Don't tell anyone."

18 The Oakleigh Forum. By letter dated 1 May 1996 we and 19 other parents petitioned Father Teal for a meeting between 20 the Catholic Church and the parents whose children attended 21 Sacred Heart School while O'Donnell was parish priest. The 22 letter was signed by many parents.

24 By letter dated 7 June 1996, Monsignor Gerald Cudmore, 25 the Vicar General of the Archdiocese of Melbourne, wrote to 26 our psychologist saying, "I am most anxious to provide 27 assistance in whatever form may be necessary to the child, 28 her family, other families and to the parish as a whole who 29 may have suffered abuse."

30
31 On 25 June 1996 a preliminary meeting was held and 32 attended by several representatives of the Catholic Church, 33 including Monsignor Cudmore. It was Monsignor Cudmore who 34 had established the Pastoral Response Office which offered 35 counselling to the victims of Catholic clergy sexual abuse.
36 The Pastoral Response Office indicated to us at the meeting 37 that it wanted to run the Oakleigh Forum. I was reluctant 38 to hand over control of the forum to the Catholic Church, 39 but I felt pressured to do so.

41 On 29 July 1996 the Oakleigh Forum was held.
42 Approximately 250 people attended. We arranged for a 43 psychologist to speak at the forum about situations that 44 led to child assault and signs to look for in children that 45 may indicate that they had been abused. Monsignor Cudmore 46 was to attend the forum, but did not. The priest who 47 replaced him, Father Joe McMahon, said that he "wondered

1 why he was there" and after the forum I felt that many 2 questions were left unanswered.

4 On 10 August 1996 I read an article in The Age
5 newspaper which recorded comments of the then Archbishop 6 designate of Melbourne, George Pell. It reported 7 Archbishop Pell was agreeing that "payments to victims 8 across Australia could involve millions of dollars" and 9 further that "I don't know what we will be up for. If we 10 have to borrow money we will, whatever the tab." The 11 article also reported that Archbishop Pell had said the 12 Catholic Church would not play "legal games" with victims.

14 On or about 14 August 1996 we received a letter from 15 the Pastoral Response Office which stated, "After our 16 discussion this morning I'd like to reiterate that this 17 office is able to obtain financial provision for 18 therapeutic care for yourself, Anthony and your whole 19 family, if needed."

21 The Melbourne Forum. In September 1996 the Pastoral 22 Response Office invited some of us to become part of the 23 Victims' Advisory Group in preparation for the Melbourne 24 Forum. I understood the Melbourne Forum to be an 25 initiative of the Pastoral Response Office to address the 26 issue of Catholic clergy sexual abuse throughout the 27 Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne.

28
29 On 19 October 1996 Anthony and I attended the 30 Melbourne Forum. Archbishop Pell and a number of other 31 Catholic Church leaders took the stage. I cannot now 32 recall the names of the other Catholic Church leaders.
33 I participated in the Melbourne Forum as did a number of 34 other people, including victims. During the Melbourne 35 Forum one of the Catholic Church leaders announced that the 36 Melbourne Response would be formed. There was not much 37 detail given at that time.

39 For the purposes of the Melbourne Forum I wrote a 40 letter dated 19 October 1996 on behalf of the parents from 41 our Oakleigh parish group which was critical of the 42 Catholic Church. I asked someone else to read my letter 43 aloud as I did not trust my composure. My letter was read 44 out to the Melbourne Forum and was met by applause from 45 others in the audience. When the reader reached the part 46 of my letter which said, "To these criminals, and they are 47 criminals, you offer asylum, so their offences are not

1 brought to light ..." the Catholic Church Leadership stood 2 up and walked off the stage and did not return.

4 In the days that followed, Anthony and I came to the 5 view that the purpose of the Melbourne Forum had not been 6 to facilitate communication between victims and the 7 Catholic Church hierarchy as we had hoped. Rather, the 8 event seemed designed to announce what we would later know 9 as the Pell Process or the Melbourne Response. We reached 10 this view because of the attitude demonstrated by the 11 Catholic Church Leaders in attendance on the day. They did 12 not engage with the audience, they seemed standoffish and 13 they were separated from us sitting up on the stage. They 14 did not appear to want to listen to parents describe the 15 horror of finding a sexual offender in the very heart of 16 their parish. They walked out on us.

18 MR FOSTER:
19

20 On 30 October 1996, 11 days after the 21 Melbourne Forum, the details of the 22 Melbourne Response were announced. Anthony 23 and I read about the details in the 24 newspaper and elsewhere. Around this time 25 we received a brochure entitled "Sexual 26 abuse - the Melbourne Archdiocese response" 27 which was signed by Archbishop Pell.
28

29 From this material we understood that there 30 were three components to the scheme.
31 First, a victim's complaint would be 32 directed to a Catholic Church appointed 33 Independent Commissioner who was to 34 investigate and decide if the allegation of 35 abuse was valid. If the Independent 36 Commissioner found the allegation to be 37 valid, the victim then moved to the second 38 section of the scheme which was the 39 Compensation Panel. The Compensation Panel 40 was responsible for deciding the amount of 41 money to be offered to the victim, capped
42 at $50,000. Any money paid was ex gratia, 43 meaning it was given with no admission of 44 responsibility or liability for damage.
45 The final component of the scheme was 46 Carelink. If an allegation was accepted, 47 victims could go to Carelink to receive

1 counselling or treatment costs.

3 Our immediate reaction to reading the 4 details of the Melbourne Response was 5 outrage. Anthony and I considered $50,000 6 to be an entirely inadequate amount to 7 compensate Emma for the lifelong damage 8 caused by the sexual abuse.

10 In his letter of 7 June 1996 Monsignor 11 Cudmore had accepted O'Donnell's abuse of 12 Emma and had offered whatever help was 13 necessary for the whole family. Now Emma 14 had to apply for what would be capped 15 assistance. We felt betrayed.

16
17 Around this time we learned that accepting 18 a payment through the Melbourne Response 19 meant signing a document that released the 20 Catholic Church from any and all further 21 claims. Anthony and I also learnt that 22 Professor Richard Ball had been appointed 23 to run the Carelink component of the 24 Melbourne Response. As such, he was in 25 charge of responding to and looking after 26 victims of Catholic clergy sexual abuse.
27 I felt very uncomfortable about this 28 because a Victorian Police Liaison officer
29 had previously told me that Professor Ball 30 gave expert evidence on behalf of the 31 defence in the criminal case against 32 O'Donnell. The officer also told me that 33 Professor Ball had provided reports to 34 defence lawyers acting for other paedophile
35 priests and brothers, including Ridsdale, 36 Glennon, Gannon and Best.

37 38 Anthony and I were profoundly shocked that 39 Professor Ball was responsible for the 40 counselling arm of the Melbourne Response.
41 I felt that this was not fair to victims.
42 To me, it demonstrated a lack of 43 understanding of how victims might feel and 44 the need for a separate, independent and 45 safe place for victims to go for help. It 46 is for these reasons that I was too 47 horrified to deal with Professor Ball and

1 we declined to do so for quite some time.

3 In the brochure entitled "Sexual 4 abuse - The Melbourne Archdiocese 5 Response", Archbishop Pell quoted the 6 Catholic Bishops of Australia pastoral 7 letter of 1996 stating that, "In seeking to 8 do what is possible, our major goals must 9 be: truth, humility, healing for victims, 10 assistance to other persons affected." Our 11 experience with the Melbourne Response over 12 time led Anthony and I to believe that this 13 statement was nothing but empty words.

14
15 Request for O'Donnell to be stripped of his 16 clerical status. In about November 1996, 17 Anthony and I approached Father Teal to 18 ensure that O'Donnell, now a convicted sex
19 offender, was stripped of his clerical
20 status. An appointment was subsequently 21 made for us to speak with Father Ross
22 McKenney, a canon lawyer from a
23 neighbouring parish. On 5 December 1996
24 Anthony and I met with Father McKenney.
25 The meeting did not go well. Anthony and 26 I told him that we wanted the Catholic
27 Church to laicise O'Donnell as his crimes 28 against children made him unfit for the 29 title. Father McKenney scoffed in response 30 and said, "We can't do that."

31
32 Invited to seek assistance under Melbourne
33 Response. On 5 December 1996 we received a 34 letter enclosing forms from the Pastoral 35 Response Office that requested that Anthony
36 and I authorise the transfer of our files 37 from the Pastoral Response Office over to 38 the new Melbourne Response, that is to 39 Carelink and to the Independent
40 Commissioner. The attached materials said 41 that this was "in order to receive the 42 appropriate assistance from either
43 Mr O'Callaghan in reference to complaints
44 and compensation matters, or Professor Ball
45 (Carelink) for psychiatric, psychological 46 counselling and support services." When 47 Anthony and I later applied for

1 compensation under the Melbourne Response 2 as secondary victims, our application was 3 refused by Mr O'Callaghan.

5 Archbishop Pell's visit to Oakleigh. In 6 mid-December 1996 Anthony and I received 7 notification that Archbishop Pell would 8 visit Oakleigh to meet with a group of 9 about 30 parents in February 1997. Anthony
10 and I were informed that Archbishop Pell 11 wished to meet with us prior to meeting the 12 group. On 17 February 1997 we met with 13 Archbishop Pell. During our meeting we 14 discussed the Melbourne Response. Anthony 15 said to Archbishop Pell that we viewed the 16 new scheme as a cost saving measure by the 17 Catholic Church and to the detriment of 18 victims. Part of the reason we had this 19 view was due to the cap and its 20 restrictions. In response, Archbishop Pell 21 said to Anthony, "If you don't like what 22 we're doing, take us to court."
23

24 We also raised with Archbishop Pell our 25 opposition to Professor Ball being 26 appointed to Carelink. Archbishop Pell 27 responded that Professor Ball "was the best 28 man for the job". Our objections and 29 concerns about Professor Ball fell on deaf
30 ears. Professor Ball occupied his position 31 for many years.
32

33 After our private meeting with Archbishop 34 Pell we attended the larger group meeting.
35 Victims shared their stories during the 36 meeting and asked Archbishop Pell a number 37 of questions. One of the questions asked 38 was in relation to known paedophiles still 39 serving in parishes in Melbourne.
40 Archbishop Pell's response was, "It's all 41 gossip until it's proven in court and 42 I don't listen to gossip."
43

44 Emma's application under the Melbourne 45 Response. In March 1997 we made the 46 decision to go through the Melbourne
47 Response to seek help for Emma. With our

1 assistance Emma signed and lodged the 2 consent to Independent Commissioner form.
3 Emma was then 15 years old. We met with 4 Mr Peter O'Callaghan QC, the Independent 5 Commissioner, and he interviewed Emma.

7 On 24 April 1997 we consulted solicitors
8 Williams, Winter & Higgs. We had felt 9 quite powerless in our dealings with the 10 Catholic Church thus far and decided to 11 redress this imbalance by seeking 12 independent legal advice.
13

14 We wanted to see what other options there 15 might be to try to get some help for our 16 whole family. Our solicitors informed us 17 that it would be very difficult to sue the 18 Catholic Church and suggested that we 19 initially seek assistance through the 20 Victims of Crime Assistance Tribunal as an 21 alternative to the Melbourne Response.
22

23 In May 1997 applications for assistance
24 were lodged with the Victims of Crime
25 Assistance Tribunal on behalf of each of 26 us. We then put those applications on 27 hold. I thought that, from an ethical 28 point of view, the Catholic Church should 29 be the entity providing the assistance.
30 Despite the initial legal advice I had 31 received, I was hopeful to find a way to 32 bring a civil claim.
33

34 Following Emma's application to the 35 Melbourne Response, I submitted invoices
36 for Emma's medical treatment to Carelink
37 for payment. On or about 24 June 1997
38 I received a letter from Reverend Monsignor 39 Denis Hart, the Vicar General of the 40 Archdiocese of Melbourne, as he then was.
41 The letter expressed the view that Medicare 42 and/or our private health insurance should 43 be relied upon to pay Emma's outstanding 44 medical accounts. I thought that this was 45 inappropriate. It seemed to me that the 46 Catholic Church wanted to transfer
47 responsibility for Emma's medical expenses

1 from itself and on to taxpayers (through 2 Medicare) and on to our private health
3 insurer. This did not feel right to me.

5 At around this time Carelink had been 6 contacting us frequently seeking to set up
7 a meeting with Professor Ball. I felt 8 pressured. Despite my objection to his 9 role, I relented. On 29 July 1997 we met
10 with Professor Ball. Professor Ball made a 11 tape recording of our meeting. When we 12 questioned Professor Ball about his 13 assessment report of O'Donnell used in the 14 criminal trial, Professor Ball admitted to 15 making his assessment after meeting
16 O'Donnell only once. I expressed my view 17 that he should have known, in his expert 18 opinion, that O'Donnell was likely to 19 reoffend and was likely to have committed 20 more offences than he admitted to in his 21 criminal case.
22

23 Professor Ball in regard to the provision 24 of counselling to our family said that 25 should be our responsibility. I understood
26 this to mean that in his view Carelink 27 and/or the Catholic Church should be 28 providing counselling to our family.
29

30 On or about 3 October 1997 we received a
31 letter from Mr O'Callaghan informing us 32 that he proposed to make a formal finding 33 that he was satisfied that Emma was the 34 victim of sexual abuse by O'Donnell.
35

36 On or about 28 April 1998 we received a 37 letter from Mr O'Callaghan enclosing a copy
38 of his proposed report to the Compensation
39 Panel in respect of Emma. Mr O'Callaghan 40 invited us to provide him with comments in 41 respect of the draft.
42

43 On or about 10 June 1998 we received a 44 letter from Mr O'Callaghan advising he had 45 written to the chairman of the Compensation 46 Panel regarding his finding regarding Emma.
47

1 On or about 8 July 1998 we received a 2 letter from Mr David Habersberger QC, the 3 Chair of the Compensation Panel, informing 4 us of an appointment to see the panel on 5 11 August 1998 in relation to Emma's 6 application.

8 On or about 7 August 1998 we received a
9 letter from Corrs Chambers Westgarth
10 (Corrs) ahead of Emma's appointment with 11 the Compensation Panel outlining the legal 12 issues around Emma being a minor.
13

14 On 11 August 1998 we attended the 15 Compensation Panel to plead Emma's case.
16 We knew the cap was only $50,000. When we 17 arrived, we were greeted and escorted to a 18 meeting room where a number of men and 19 women sat around a large table. I can only 20 recall details of two of the panel members 21 that attended. One was Mr Habersberger and 22 the other was a young lawyer I assumed from 23 Corrs who acted for Archbishop Pell and the 24 Archdiocese of Melbourne. Anthony stated 25 to the panel:
26

27 "You have the reports of what has happened
28 to Emma. I do not want to upset myself 29 further by talking about it now. I believe 30 you should pay Emma the full compensation 31 amount of $50,000." 32

33 Mr Habersberger agreed that we did not need 34 to go over Emma's sufferings and we were 35 grateful for his kindness. He said that a 36 letter would be sent to us at a later date 37 informing us of Emma's compensation amount.
38

39 Following our discussion with 40 the Compensation Panel, I approached the 41 lawyer. I spoke to him about the costs our 42 family had incurred in our attempts to 43 improve Emma's life as a result of the 44 sexual abuse, including moving schools. At 45 that point in time I calculated that we had 46 spent approximately $15,000. This was only 47 the expenses for which I had actual

1 receipts. He said to me, "Oh, the ex
2 gratia compensation payment Emma receives 3 will cover that." I was unimpressed and 4 responded by asking him whether he expected 5 me to take $15,000 from Emma by way of 6 reimbursement of these expenses.

8 I then approached Mr Habersberger with my 9 request. He listened and suggested that we 10 speak with a more senior lawyer as what we 11 were asking for was not covered by Carelink 12 or the ex gratia payment.

14 On or about 31 August 1998 we received a 15 letter from Corrs confirming that the 16 Compensation Panel had recommended to 17 Archbishop Pell that Emma be offered the 18 maximum amount of compensation, being 19 $50,000. The letter said it was an 20 alternative to litigation which would 21 otherwise be strenuously defended.
22

23 Enclosed with the letter from Corrs was a 24 personal letter addressed to Emma dated 25 26 August 1998 from Archbishop Pell. In 26 that letter Archbishop Pell offered Emma a 27 personal apology for the wrongs and hurts
28 she suffered at the hands of O'Donnell.
29

30 In the same envelope was a letter dated 31 12 August 1998 from Mr Habersberger
32 suggesting that we contact Mr Richard Leder
33 of Corrs about Emma's incurred expenses.
34 Anthony rang Mr Leder to inquire about 35 reimbursement of these expenses. I was in 36 the room with Anthony when he made the 37 telephone call. To each requested item 38 Mr Leder replied, "I can't help you with 39 that. What else can I help you with?"
40 Anthony asked about the next item on the 41 list. Again Mr Leder replied, "I can't 42 help you with that. What else can I help 43 you with?" And so it continued until there 44 was nothing left to say.
45

46 Neither Anthony nor I ever had any sense 47 about how the amounts of compensation were

1 decided by the Compensation Panel. We were 2 provided no information in relation to any 3 criteria that was applied to Emma's 4 application by the Compensation Panel and 5 no appeal process was offered. Nothing
6 about this process was transparent.

8 Emma received a letter dated 3 December 9 1998 from Corrs which I saw and read. The 10 letter confirmed Emma's acceptance of the 11 compensation offer and informed her that 12 the next step would be to establish a trust 13 in which the funds were to be held until 14 she turned 18. From this we understood
15 that Emma must have communicated to Corrs 16 her intended acceptance of the offer of 17 $50,000.
18

19 On or about 8 February 1999 Emma received a 20 letter from Corrs enclosing a proposed 21 trust deed.
22

23 On or about 22 September 2000 we asked our 24 solicitors to write to Mr O'Callaghan
25 informing him that Emma was still 26 considering the offer made to her.
27

28 A. Katie's experience and application under the Melbourne 29 Response. In November 1997 we learned that Katie too had 30 been sexually abused by O'Donnell. I discovered a suicide 31 note Katie had written. The note said that her sister had 32 been abused by O'Donnell and that she had been abused by 33 O'Donnell too. We made an appointment for Katie to see a 34 psychologist. From that point forwards Katie saw a 35 psychologist weekly.
36

37 In early 1998 we assisted Katie to lodge an 38 application for compensation under the Melbourne Response 39 as we had done with Emma.
40

41 On 29 June 1998 Mr O'Callaghan interviewed Katie about 42 the sexual abuse of her by O'Donnell.
43

44 We understand that Emma and Katie did certain things 45 to try and find relief from the suffering caused by the 46 sexual abuse perpetrated against them by O'Donnell. While 47 Emma took drugs to obtain respite from her traumatic

1 memories, Katie began to binge drink to find relief. Twice
2 we had returned home from work to find Katie very drunk.
3 I believe that if Katie had not been subjected to ongoing 4 sexual assault by O'Donnell she would not have resorted to 5 binge drinking.

7 On 28 May 1999 Katie was crossing a road while she was 8 under the influence of alcohol. Katie was hit by a car and 9 the impact stopped her heart and caused a number of bleeds
10 and swelling to her brain. Katie was in a comatose state 11 for about four months and remained in hospital for almost 12 one year. The accident left her with permanent brain 13 damage. For the rest of her life Katie will require 14 24-hour care. While it remained a priority for us to 15 continue working towards bringing a case against the 16 Catholic Church, we were faced with many challenges and 17 adjustments to our lives following Katie's accident. On 18 26 May 2000 Katie left hospital and returned home to us.

20 In our solicitor's letter of 22 September 2000 to 21 Mr O'Callaghan, Mr O'Callaghan was asked to confirm his 22 previous verbal advice that he accepted that O'Donnell had 23 sexually abused Katie.

24
25 Anthony and Chrissie's applications under the 26 Melbourne Response. On 13 September 1998 Anthony and 27 I applied for compensation through the Melbourne Response 28 on behalf of ourselves.

29
30 By letter dated 17 November 1998 Mr O'Callaghan
31 rejected both Anthony and my application for compensation.
32 The letter stated, "The Compensation Panel will have no 33 finding from me that you are entitled to be treated as a 34 victim and will presumably act accordingly."

35
36 Civil litigation considered. Between 1997 and 1999 we 37 exchanged many letters and phone calls with our solicitors 38 in respect of our options for seeking compensation. By 39 1999 we needed to make a decision in respect of our 40 applications to the Victims of Crime Assistance Tribunal 41 because of the time limitations that applied. Our 42 solicitors suggested a meeting with a barrister, Mr Tim 43 Seccull.

44
45 On 26 February 1999 we met with Mr Seccull and our 46 solicitors to discuss possible common law actions we could 47 take against the Catholic Church. At that meeting we

1 confirmed with our solicitors that we wanted to pursue 2 civil legal action against the Catholic Church rather than 3 continuing with the Melbourne Response or the Victims of 4 Crime Assistance Tribunal. Emma and Katie also attended 5 the meeting and each gave statements to Tim in relation to 6 the abuse by O'Donnell.

8 Mr Seccull informed us at that meeting that the next 9 step in preparing a case against the Catholic Church was to 10 have Emma and Katie assessed by a medico-legal psychiatrist 11 with expertise in trauma. On 17 March 1999 both Emma and 12 Katie met with the specialist. Nine months later we 13 received drafts of the report.
14

15 Due to the complex nature of our case, it took our 16 solicitors and Anthony and I quite some time to reach the 17 point where we were ready to go ahead with the civil 18 claims.
19

20 Mr O'Callaghan visits our home. On 6 May 1999, about 21 six months before Emma turned 18, Mr O'Callaghan made an 22 appointment to visit our home to discuss Katie's 23 application to the Melbourne Response. Mr O'Callaghan 24 informed us during his visit that he would make a finding 25 for Katie the same as Emma's, that O'Donnell had sexually 26 abused Katie. Mr O'Callaghan also wanted to talk privately 27 to Emma, I assume about accepting the offer of $50,000. We 28 had told Emma not to accept the offer as we knew this would 29 end all her rights. We did not allow Mr O'Callaghan to 30 speak privately with Emma. A week to 10 days later, 31 Mr O'Callaghan rang me at work asking if I had engaged 32 lawyers. I neither confirmed nor denied that we had 33 engaged lawyers.
34

35 Civil litigation. In 2002 we instructed our 36 solicitors to commence five separate legal proceedings in 37 the Supreme Court of Victoria on behalf of Anthony, Emma, 38 Katie, Aimee and me. The following defendants were named 39 in each proceeding: one, Noreen Harrison, the former 40 principal of Sacred Heart Primary School (first defendant); 41 two, Emeritus Archbishop for the Diocese of Melbourne, Sir 42 Frank Little (second defendant); three, Archbishop for the 43 Diocese of Melbourne, the Most Reverend Dennis J Hart
44 (third defendant); four, Roman Catholic Trust Corporation 45 for the Diocese of Melbourne (fourth defendant); five, 46 Reverend Father Hilton Deakin (fifth defendant), former 47 Vicar General; and, sixth, Reverend Father Anthony Guelen

1 (sixth defendant) - served with O'Donnell at Dandenong.

3 The proceedings in relation to Anthony and I were 4 issued on or about 22 March 2002. The proceedings in 5 relation to Emma, Katie and Aimee were issued on or about 6 28 October 2002. The proceedings were served on the 7 defendants some time later in 2003. Our solicitors 8 informed us that Corrs was acting for each and every one of 9 the defendants.

10
11 The proceedings in relation to Emma and Katie made a 12 claim for damages for injuries sustained as a result of the 13 sexual assaults perpetrated on them by O'Donnell whilst in 14 attendance at Sacred Heart Catholic Primary School. The 15 proceedings alleged that the sexual assaults occurred in 16 premises owned and operated by the first to fourth 17 defendants whilst Emma, Katie and O'Donnell were under the 18 care and control of the first to sixth defendants.
19 Further, it was alleged that the sexual assaults occurred 20 at a time subsequent to the first to sixth defendants 21 becoming aware of O'Donnell's propensity to behave 22 dangerously and inappropriately with young children.

23
24 In particular, it was alleged against the first to 25 fifth defendants in the statement of claim that: one, in or 26 about 1958 complaints were made by two people in respect of 27 the interference by O'Donnell with a young boy. Such 28 complaints were made to Monsignor Laurence Moran, the then 29 chief administrator for the Diocese of Melbourne; and, two, 30 in early 1992 Reverend Father John Silvano complained to 31 the fifth defendant, Hilton Deakin, about the inappropriate 32 behaviour of O'Donnell with young children.

33
34 Further, it was alleged against the sixth defendant, 35 Reverend Father Anthony Guelen, that his breach of duty was 36 in: one, failing to act upon the observations of O'Donnell 37 engaging in inappropriate behaviour with a young boy whilst 38 in the Diocese of Melbourne in or about 1958; two, having 39 made the observations referred to above, failing to 40 communicate the nature of the same to the appropriate 41 authorities, including the then Archbishop of the Diocese
42 of Melbourne and Victoria Police; and, three, having made 43 the observations referred to above, failing to ensure that 44 O'Donnell was not permitted contact and/or involvement with 45 young children.

46
47 The claim for damages was made on the basis that Emma

1 and Katie suffered injuries as a consequence of the sexual 2 assaults by O'Donnell and/or the negligence and breach of 3 duty of the first to sixth defendants.

5 The proceedings relating to Anthony, Aimee and 6 I differed in relation to the nature of the injuries we 7 each sustained. The claim for damages was made on the 8 basis that we each suffered injury by way of nervous shock
9 as a consequence of the sexual assaults by O'Donnell
10 perpetrated against Emma and Katie and/or the negligence 11 and breach of duties of the first to sixth defendants.
12

13 On or about 7 May 2004 our solicitors received 14 defences on behalf of the first to sixth defendants. In 15 each of the proceedings the defences said that the 16 statement of claim did not disclose a cause of action and 17 was liable to be struck out. Our solicitors provided us 18 with a copy of the defences at the time. Anthony and 19 I were both shocked to find that in Emma and Katie's 20 proceedings the defendants did not admit that O'Donnell 21 subjected the girls to sexual abuse. Further, the 22 defendants denied that Emma and Katie suffered shock, 23 personal injury, loss and damage as a consequence of the 24 breach of their respective duties. Mr O'Callaghan had 25 previously made formal findings that O'Donnell sexually 26 abused Emma and Archbishop Pell had offered Emma a personal 27 apology. Mr O'Callaghan had also verbally indicated to us 28 that he would make findings that O'Donnell sexually abused 29 Katie.
30

31 In October 2004 amended statements of claim and 32 defences were filed and served in each of the proceedings.
33 The parties were due to give discovery in December 2004.
34 In December 2004 our solicitors informed us that Corrs had 35 foreshadowed it would seek to strike out parts of our 36 statements of claim in each proceeding and therefore would 37 not be providing discovery.
38

39 By February 2005 our solicitors had still not received 40 the defendants' foreshadowed strike-out application. In 41 about early March 2005 we instructed our solicitors to seek 42 a without prejudice meeting with the solicitors for the 43 defendants. Due to unavailability of various persons, the 44 without prejudice meeting did not take place until 24 June 45 2005. Following the without prejudice meeting, we 46 instructed our solicitors to recommence settlement 47 discussions by way of mediation. Again, due to 1 unavailability of various persons, the mediation was 2 delayed and did not take place until November 2005.

4 On 7 November 2005 a mediation session was held 5 between our legal representatives. We were represented by 6 Mr Stanley QC and Mr Seccull on the day. Anthony, Emma, 7 Katie, Aimee and I also attended the offices of the 8 mediation and sat in the next room while the mediation took 9 place. Our solicitors sought our instructions throughout 10 the entire mediation process. We instructed Mr Stanley to 11 make it clear to the defendants that we were not prepared 12 to resolve our cases for the amount of money available 13 under the Melbourne Response and that we were prepared to 14 go to trial.

15
16 The defendants initially offered us a figure of 17 $250,000 plus costs with no ongoing entitlement to Carelink
18 and no indemnity in respect of the Health Insurance 19 Commission. We instructed Mr Stanley to make a 20 counteroffer of 1.5 million plus costs. The defendants 21 then made a counteroffer of $350,000 on the same terms as 22 first offered. At this point Anthony then entered the 23 mediation and spoke directly to the legal representatives 24 for the defendants. Following Anthony's discussion, we 25 instructed Mr Stanley to make a counteroffer of $750,000 26 plus solicitor/client costs in all cases, an ongoing 27 entitlement to Carelink and an indemnity in respect to the 28 Health Insurance Commission. The defendants made a 29 counteroffer of $500,000 on the same terms. We instructed 30 Mr Stanley to reject the defendants' offer and inform them 31 that $750,000 was our bottom line.

32
33 Finally the defendants made an offer of $750,000. The 34 offer included payment of our costs taxed on a 35 solicitor-client basis unless otherwise agreed and an 36 indemnity in respect of any payments to the Health 37 Insurance Commission, but no ongoing entitlement to 38 Carelink. We made the decision to allocate the settlement 39 sum of $750,000 to each of us as follows: one, Emma, 40 $450,000; two, Katie, $220,000; three, Aimee, $30,000; 41 four, Anthony, $25,000; five, me, $25,000.

42
43 On 3 March 2006 the terms of the settlement were 44 agreed and executed by our solicitors. The settlement was 45 conditional on the approval of the settlement of Katie's 46 proceedings by the Supreme Court of Victoria. Each of the 47 proceedings was settled without any liability being

1 admitted on the part of any of the defendants and further 2 terms and conditions. We agreed to release and forever 3 discharge the defendants and any person who was, is or who 4 becomes the Archbishop of the Catholic Archdiocese of 5 Melbourne from any claims arising out of the proceedings or 6 the assaults by O'Donnell on Emma and Katie.

8 Further, we agreed not to make any further claim for 9 expenses or compensation arising out of proceedings or the 10 assaults by O'Donnell on Emma and Katie, including 11 assistance provided through Carelink. This affected us 12 greatly as our family heavily relied on support and 13 counselling services for Emma and Katie. We have learnt 14 from our experience that lifelong support of victims and 15 victims' families is crucial in dealing with the effect of 16 child sexual abuse. This is simply because the effect that 17 child sexual abuse has on people is lifelong, so the 18 support offered needs to be lifelong.
19

20 We agreed that the terms of the settlement would 21 remain confidential between the parties and undertook not 22 to disclose any part of the terms to any other person other 23 than as required by law.
24

25 In or about April 2007 our solicitors received a 26 cheque for payment of our legal costs in the amount of 27 $122,000.
28

29 MR FOSTER:
30

31 Counselling offered by Carelink, then 32 retracted during civil litigation. In 33 December 2002, before proceedings were 34 served, a new staff member of Carelink by 35 the name of Elizabeth Harding contacted us 36 wanting to meet for a coffee. She was very 37 compassionate and asked why we were not 38 seeing a psychologist. She told us that 39 we, including Aimee, should be getting 40 treatment and to send her the accounts for 41 payment. Up until that point the Melbourne 42 Response had refused to pay for 43 intermittent therapy for Anthony, Aimee and 44 I. At her invitation, Anthony and I began 45 seeing a local family therapist to assist 46 us through our struggles.
47

1 On or about 17 January 2003 Mrs Maheras
2 received a letter from Ms Harding
3 authorising counselling for the Foster
4 family. Mrs Maheras told us that she was 5 sending accounts directly to Carelink for 6 payment.

8 Mrs Maheras advised me that she had 9 received two telephone calls in November 10 2004 from Ms Harding stating that 11 Mr O'Callaghan had not approved the payment 12 of our counselling expenses and that he had 13 "hit the roof" about it. Mrs Maheras
14 provided me with notes of the two telephone 15 calls. Mrs Maheras has sadly now passed 16 away. Mrs Maheras told us that the 17 Catholic Church immediately stop paying for 18 our counselling and even refused to pay for 19 the previous months' accounts.
20

21 Impact on our lives. Emma first suffered
22 anorexia in June 1995 and until mediation
23 in November 2005 she had visited doctors, 24 specialists and pathology services about 25 906 times, plus at least 75 outpatient
26 psychology appointments and more than 52 27 admissions into hospital, detox and 28 rehabilitation clinics. Despite all this 29 professional help and our love for her, our 30 Emma sadly never recovered from the sexual 31 abuse she suffered. Her life continued to 32 spiral out of control and in January 2008
33 she took her own life.
34

35 Katie has never recovered from being hit by 36 a car while binge drinking to escape the 37 memories of her sexual assault. She will 38 always require 24-hour care.
39

40 Aimee has suffered since the age of 10
41 witnessing the disintegration of her
42 sisters' lives. She has also been deprived 43 of our attention over the past 18 years 44 with our time spent caring for Emma and 45 Katie.
46

47 In July 2008, whilst on holiday in England

1 and during the lead-up to the Pope's visit
2 to Sydney for World Youth Day, we were made
3 aware of media coverage about Cardinal
4 Pell. It was alleged that Cardinal Pell 5 had sent two contradictory letters to 6 victims of a particular Catholic clergy sex
7 offender, each letter bearing the same
8 date. Anthony was interviewed on the ABC 9 TV Lateline program on 15 July 2008. We 10 made the decision to cut our trip short.
11 We wanted to return to Australia and travel 12 to Sydney in an attempt to meet and 13 convince the Pope of the need for changes 14 to how the Catholic Church responds to 15 victims of Catholic clergy sexual abuse.

17 During our journey to Sydney, on a stopover
18 in Tokyo, we were made aware of a comment 19 by Bishop Anthony Fisher in response to the 20 Lateline interview where he referred to us 21 as "dwelling crankily on old wounds". Emma 22 had died only six months earlier. We lived 23 with the pain of our wounds daily, and 24 still do. We found these comments to be 25 very hurtful.

26
27 On arrival in Sydney we condemned Bishop 28 Fisher's comments and during the following 29 days we requested a meeting with the Pope.
30 We were ignored by the Catholic Church.
31 The Pope left Sydney without meeting us.

32
33 The conduct of the Catholic Church 34 aggravated our suffering, including the 35 inconsistent responses we received over 36 time about whether or not they believed 37 Emma and Katie, and whether or not they 38 would assist Anthony and I by paying for 39 our counselling.

40 41 The civil litigation process took our 42 family almost 10 years to complete. It 43 required countless hours of effort at a 44 significant personal cost and the help of 45 our dedicated legal team. We are of the 46 view that we settled for an amount of money
47 that was far less than what our children

1 were entitled to. Even so, it was a far 2 better result than we could have hoped for 3 from the Melbourne Response. With the 4 settlement funds Emma was able to purchase
5 a house. Katie was able to move into her 6 own home which was specially designed to 7 take into account her disabilities. Very 8 few victims, however, are afforded the 9 support our children had to be able to 10 achieve such a result.

11
12 Subsequent events. In 2009 I co-authored a 13 book with Paul Kennedy titled "Hell on the 14 Way to Heaven" which details the 15 devastating impact of events upon our 16 family. It was published in 2010. I have 17 prepared a timeline of events.

19 On 23 November 2012 Anthony, Katie, Aimee
20 and I gave evidence to the Victorian 21 inquiry into the handling of child abuse by 22 religious and other organisations.

23
24 We met with Cardinal Pell in Sydney in 25 March 2014 following his appearance at the 26 Royal Commission. We stated our position
27 of wanting the Melbourne Response 28 compensation cap removed and all previous 29 and future cases to be reassessed in line 30 with civil limits. He agreed with our 31 proposal to review the Melbourne Response
32 and said he would speak to Archbishop Hart.
33 We then met with Archbishop Hart in 34 Melbourne in April 2014. Archbishop Hart
35 agreed to review the situation and invited 36 us to be part of the consultation with the 37 aim to present the results to this hearing.

38 39 Based on our experience, our view is that 40 the Melbourne Response should be 41 re-evaluated to ensure it complies with the 42 legal and moral standards of our society to 43 ensure and enable just compensation and 44 care for all victims. Civil levels of 45 compensation ought to be awarded to 46 victims. There should be no time limit for 47 civil or criminal claims in regard to

1 sexual crimes against children. We would 2 like to see an independent reassessment of 3 all past claims under the Melbourne 4 Response to more adequately reflect the 5 levels of compensation that could be 6 achieved if victims took legal action
7 against the Catholic Church. To be clear, 8 we think it is appropriate to revisit every 9 previous settlement under the Melbourne 10 Response to make sure proper financial 11 compensation was paid.

12 13 We had the means and ability to guide our 14 daughters through the Melbourne Response 15 process; however, not all victims have that 16 same level of support. Even as parents of 17 victims, we found the experience to be 18 daunting. From the moment we entered the 19 meeting with the Compensation Panel we felt 20 intimidated. Based on our experience, we 21 consider that victims without adequate 22 support or legal representation would feel 23 intimidated and overwhelmed by the whole 24 process.

25
26 Our understanding is that the three stages 27 of the Melbourne Response are intended to 28 be independent from one another. This is 29 not reflective of our experience with the 30 Melbourne Response. The Independent
31 Commissioner's role is to determine 32 whether an assault has occurred, yet we 33 were faced with a situation where the 34 Independent Commissioner requested to speak 35 with Emma, we assumed in relation to 36 accepting the offer of $50,000. We found 37 this to demonstrate a lack of independence.

38
39 Having experienced both the Melbourne
40 Response and the legal system as a means of 41 gaining compensation, our view is that the 42 legal system is a far superior option than 43 engaging in the Melbourne Response. We 44 would like to see changes to the legal 45 system to allow victims to receive full and 46 just compensation for what has happened to 47 them.

2 We also support the introduction of a
3 redress scheme funded by the responsible 4 institutions as an alternative to, but not 5 replacing, victims' recourse to the legal 6 system. To this end we commend the COIN
7 submission to issues paper 6 to the Royal 8 Commission.

10 MS FURNESS: Thank you. I have no further questions.
11

12 THE CHAIR: Does anyone else have any questions of 13 Mrs Foster?
14

15 MR RUSKIN: No, Your Honour.
16

17 MR WOODS: No, Your Honour.
18

19 MR GRAY: No, Your Honour.
20

21 MR SECCULL: Yes, I do, Your Honour.
22

23 <EXAMINATION BY MR SECCULL:
24

25 MR SECCULL: Q. Your Honour, my name is Seccull and 26 I appear for the Foster family. Mrs Foster, whilst reading 27 your statement you took us to the paragraphs including 28 paragraphs 58 and 59. If I could ask you, please, just to 29 refer to those statements at paragraphs 58 and 59. In 30 paragraph 58 you make reference to two letters, that is a 31 letter dated 31 August 1998?

32 A. Yes.
33

34 Q. And, secondly, a letter dated 26 August 1998?

35 A. Yes.

37 Q. And then in paragraph 59 a letter dated 12 August 38 1998?

39 A. Yes.
40

41 Q. Do you recall receiving those three letters?

42 A. Yes, they came in one envelope.
43

44 Q. Do you recall, having opened the envelope, in which 45 order they appeared?

46 A. The first was the apology from George Pell.
47

1 Q. Yes. Your Honour, that apology appears at tab 138.
2 I'm wondering if that could be shown, please. Is that a
3 document to which you refer, Mrs Foster?

4 A. Yes, it is.

6 Q. If I could just ask you to read, please, the final 7 paragraph of that document?

8 A.

9 On behalf of the Catholic Church and
10 personally, I apologise to you and to those 11 around you for the wrongs and hurt you have 12 suffered at the hands of Father Kevin 13 O'Donnell. Whether or not you choose to 14 accept the enclosed offer, I offer you my 15 prayers.

17 Q. Thank you, Mrs Foster. Mrs Foster, do you then recall 18 the second letter that you viewed, having opened that one 19 envelope?

20 A. Yes, it was a letter from Corrs.

22 Q. Your Honour, that also appears at tab 138. I'm 23 wondering if Mrs Foster could be shown that. Thank you, 24 Your Honour. Mrs Foster, if I could just ask you to read 25 paragraph 3 of that document, please?

26 A. Yes.

27

28 Q. Paragraph 3?

29 A.

30 The compensation offer, together with the 31 services that remain available through 32 Carelink, are offered to Emma by the 33 Archbishop in the hope that they will 34 assist her recovery and provide a realistic 35 alternative to litigation that will 36 otherwise be strenuously defended.
37 Importantly, it is also hoped that Emma 38 will in time be able to put the abuse she 39 has suffered behind her, and focus on the 40 future. Enclosed is a personal letter to 41 Emma from the Archbishop. We note that His 42 Grace has also met with you personally on 43 prior occasions.

45 Q. Thank you. Before I take you to the final letter that 46 was enclosed in that envelope, if I could just ask you, 47 please, to relay to the Commission your sense of feeling

1 having read that paragraph and in particular the phrase as 2 follows, "That will be otherwise strenuously defended"?
3 A. I felt betrayed.

5 Q. In what way?

6 A. I felt there was an apology and then there was a 7 threat. It was just more of the same from the church.

9 Q. Thank you. For the sake of completeness, Mrs Foster, 10 if I can take you, please, to a document that appears, 11 Your Honour, at tab 135. Mrs Foster, is this the final 12 document that was enclosed in that envelope?

13 A. Yes, it is.

14
15 MR SECCULL: Thank you, Your Honour. I have no further 16 questions.

17
18 MS FURNESS: Nothing further, Your Honour.

19 20 THE CHAIR: Thank you, Mrs Foster and Mr Foster.

21

23
24 THE CHAIR: Yes, Ms Furness.

25

29
30 <EXAMINATION BY MS FURNESS:

31
32 MS FURNESS: Q. Would you tell the Royal Commission your 33 full name and your current employment circumstances?

34 A. My full name is Paul Daniel Hersbach. My position has 35 recently changed and I'm currently the head of integration 36 at Australia Post.

37 38 Q. Mr Hersbach, have you provided a statement for the 39 Royal Commission?

40 A. Yes, that's correct.

41
42 Q. Do you have a copy of that with you?

43 A. I do.

45 Q. Are there any amendments you wish to make to that 46 statement?

47 A. No, there are not.

Q. Are the contents true and correct?

A. Yes, they are.

MS FURNESS: I tender that statement.

EXHIBIT #16-2 STATEMENT OF PAUL DANIEL HERSBACH, DATED 1/8/2014

THE CHAIR: Ms Furness --

MS FURNESS: I propose to tender the bundles after the witnesses, Your Honour.

THE CHAIR: Very well. But we should note that there's already been reference to documents in that bundle. When tabs are referred to, it's the tabs in the bundle. You don't want to give it a number now so we don't lose it?

MS FURNESS: I'm certainly happy to, Your Honour.
I tender the three volumes of the tender bundle, volumes 1, 2, 3.

EXHIBIT #16-3 THREE VOLUMES OF TENDER BUNDLE

MS FURNESS: Mr Hersbach, I invite you to read your statement. You can either read it from the screen or the hard copy; whatever is most convenient to you.

A. Thank you. This statement by me accurately sets out the evidence that I am prepared to give to the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse. The statement is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Where direct speech is referred to in this statement, it is provided in words or words to the effect of those which were used to the best of my recollection.

Background. My full name is Paul Daniel Hersbach. My date of birth is 1977. I am the second of four children.
I have an older brother and two younger sisters.

My father, Tony, was the child of immigrant parents from Holland. His family lived on a Housing Commission estate in Laverton in western Melbourne. He was an altar boy in the 1960s and attended school at St Mary's in Altona where Father Victor Gabriel Rubeo was a priest. Both my 1 father and his twin brother, Will, were groomed and 2 sexually abused by Father Rubeo. My father was abused over 3 a period of about eight years, from the age of 10 until he 4 was about 18 years old. Neither twin knew of each other's 5 abuse until later in life in 1997.

7 My parents got married when they were 19 years old in 8 1973. Father Rubeo officiated at their wedding. After 9 their marriage in 1973 he gave them $10,000 as a deposit 10 towards the purchase of a house in Gladstone Park.

12 Father Rubeo remained a part of my father's life after 13 my parents' marriage and after my siblings and I were born.
14 He was present at every family event and milestone. He 15 christened my three siblings and me. He came on our family 16 holidays to Pambula Beach where he would sleep in the annex 17 with my brother and me.

18 19 Father Rubeo took over the running of the family and 20 behaved like he was in charge. My parents have told me 21 that he inserted himself into the middle of their marriage, 22 their day-to-day life, their decisions and the upbringing
23 of my siblings and me. Father Rubeo would open my parents' 24 mail, pay bills and buy groceries for the family. My 25 siblings and I would call him Gramps. He even had a hat 26 made with "Super Gramps" embroidered on it.

28 We lived in the house at Gladstone Park until 1983, 29 when I was six. My three siblings and I were all born 30 while my parents lived there. During this time Father 31 Rubeo would come over once a week, usually on Sundays after 32 he finished church. He would participate in our Sunday 33 night family dinner and usually spend the night in our 34 house, returning to the presbytery the following day. He 35 had his own bedroom in our house. I thought this was 36 normal.

38 At the beginning of 1984 Father Rubeo was moved to a 39 parish in East Brighton called St Finbar's. My father 40 expressed a desire for a tree change and Father Rubeo 41 arranged for the purchase of a block of land in the 42 Dandenongs. Rather than remain in our family home at 43 Gladstone Park while the new house was built, Father Rubeo 44 decided that my family should move into the presbytery in 45 East Brighton with him. My family lived there with him for 46 about six months in the second half of 1984. I was seven 47 at the time, my brother was nine and my sisters four and 1 one.

Father Rubeo became the parish priest at Holy Name Parish in East Preston in 1985. Our family moved with him to his new presbytery and lived there for a year. The presbytery at East Preston was not a typical house. It had been designed to accommodate travelling priests and was made up of a number of sections. From a central living and cooking area there were three to four wings that each contained a bedroom, sitting room and bathroom. My brother, Adam, and I lived in one section of the presbytery while my parents lived in another with my sisters, Kathryn and Elizabeth. Father Rubeo lived in another section.

Sexual abuse. While living in the presbytery at East Preston I was sexually abused by Father Rubeo on multiple occasions. Father Rubeo would come into our bedroom at night and sit on my bed.

He would enter the bathroom while my brother and I were naked. I recall being in the bath with my brother and him coming into the room and watching us. He would see us naked and we would see him naked. He would allow us to come into his bathroom whilst he was showering and preparing for bed. I would see him playing with himself. At the time I thought this was normal.

At the beginning of 1986 we moved to the Dandenongs. Father Rubeo remained in our lives. He would arrive at our home on a Sunday afternoon, join our family dinners and then sleep in his own room in our house. He continued his pattern of sexual behaviour towards me at this time, and I was nine years old.

Father Rubeo would shower us with gifts, particularly Adam and me. He bought us new computers, our first CD player and a go-kart.

In 1988, when I was 11 years old, Father Rubeo took Adam and me on a trip to Adelaide to stay with his brother. This is the last time I can recall him acting sexually and inappropriately around me.

At the end of 1993 Father Rubeo took Adam, me and another 18-year-old male to Africa for eight weeks over Christmas. I was 16 years old at the time of the trip and my brother was 18. Adam and I were very excited to go on

1 this trip. My parents have since told me that they could 2 not find the strength at the time to say no to us, nor to 3 Father Rubeo.

5 Part of our trip to Africa was a group tour, and 6 I remember having a wonderful time and outrageous fun with 7 the group. One evening, early in the group tour, Father 8 Rubeo confronted my brother and me and demanded that we 9 spend more time with him and stop going out in the evenings
10 with the rest of the group. Adam stood up to Father Rubeo 11 and explained quite forthrightly that there would be no
12 change and that Father Rubeo would have to get used to it.
13 I can still recall the look in Father Rubeo's eyes. It 14 looked like he was trying to show anger, but the look was 15 pure shock. I now believe this was because it was the 16 first time in over 30 years that a Hersbach had ever said 17 no to him, or dared to say no to him.
18

19 A few months after we got back from Africa my father 20 told my siblings and me that he had been sexually abused by 21 Father Rubeo when he was a child. We were gathered around 22 the kitchen table for dinner when dad dropped the 23 bombshell. I remember feeling numb at the time.
24 I struggled for many years to understand why Father Rubeo 25 had been able to continue to be part of our lives, and why 26 my father was unable to say no to him. I grieved for the 27 loss of Father Rubeo from our lives. At that time I did 28 not identify myself as a victim. I only saw Father Rubeo 29 as Grampa and I could not understand.
30

31 In August 1994 dad made an official complaint about 32 Father Rubeo in a meeting with Gerald Cudmore, the vicar 33 general at the time. Father Rubeo continued his role as 34 parish priest in Boronia.
35

36 Father Rubeo contacted my father by mail in 1995. In 37 this note he asked for my father to repay the $10,000 he 38 gave my parents for their house deposit in 1973. My father 39 ignored the request.
40

41 In 1996, in an interview with Victoria Police 42 regarding an unrelated matter, Father Rubeo admitted to 43 sexually abusing my father and his brother. The police 44 contacted my father and uncle and then pressed charges 45 against Father Rubeo. Father Rubeo pleaded guilty to two 46 counts of indecent assault upon my father and uncle. He 47 was given a good behaviour bond, and no conviction was 1 recorded.

1 me that they have provided their Medicare details at 2 Carelink's request. I do not think it is appropriate that 3 Medicare should pay for Carelink services.

5 Every so often I went back to Carelink and saw 6 Ms Sharkey to check in. I was always fearful in the 7 process that my status as a secondary victim would be 8 called into question and that Carelink would seek to limit 9 my access to counselling services.
10

11 Carelink was set up on the second storey of a terrace.
12 The reception was often unstaffed and there was nowhere 13 separate to sit and wait. My impression was that 14 Ms Sharkey was acting as an administrator and as a 15 counsellor. I think there should have been a greater 16 separation between the administration of Carelink and the 17 counselling services it provided.
18

19 In 2006 I spoke with Ms Gaskin about difficulties 20 I was having adjusting to married life. I had been married 21 for just over a year at this time. At this time my state 22 of mind was poor and this had started to affect my wife and 23 our marriage. I had the understanding that if I qualified 24 as a primary victim then I need not fear losing access to 25 counselling services, but I cannot recall how or why I had 26 this understanding. I knew from my father's experience 27 that if I was a primary victim that my wife would also be 28 entitled to counselling services and that together we could 29 also get couples counselling. Soon after this I approached 30 Carelink and a meeting was arranged for me to attend 31 Carelink.
32

33 On 1 March 2006 I met with Ms Sharkey and Professor 34 Richard Ball at the Carelink office. I had not met 35 Professor Ball before this meeting. I remember the 36 conversation was being recorded as the recorder was sitting 37 on the desk during the meeting, and the meeting lasted for 38 about one hour.
39

40 I cannot recall being given any guidance or 41 explanation about what to expect at this meeting. I found 42 this meeting exceptionally traumatic. There were two of 43 them and one of me, and I felt as though I was being 44 interrogated. I found having two people speak at once to 45 me as a victim to be extremely confronting. I felt that 46 the power balance shifted significantly from a one-on-one 47 conversation.

2 In this setting I disclosed that Father Rubeo had 3 abused me. This was the first time I had disclosed to 4 anyone the specifics of my abuse and its impacts on me.
5 The nature and the tone of the questions were intimate, 6 private and confronting. My main concern was that they 7 would not believe me and thus not support me in being 8 designated as a primary victim. I feel I told them more 9 than I needed to and far more than I believe was reasonably 10 required for them to do their job.
11

12 At the meeting with Ms Sharkey and Professor Ball, 13 Professor Ball insisted that I become a patient of his and 14 see him at his offices in Fitzroy. I felt pressured to see 15 Professor Ball and I did not feel I had any choice but to 16 go. When I saw him at the first appointment I attended at 17 his office he gave me a lengthy survey which included 18 questions about my sexual preferences and experiences and 19 he told me to fill it out for his research. I did not 20 understand the purpose of those sessions. I attended 21 appointments at his office three or four times.
22

23 Ms Sharkey and Professor Ball told me during my 24 meeting with them that I needed to see Peter O'Callaghan 25 QC, the Independent Commissioner under the Melbourne
26 Response. I understood that Mr O'Callaghan would assess 27 whether I was a primary victim. I also understood that if 28 I was assessed as a primary victim I would be entitled to 29 apply for compensation from the Melbourne Response's 30 Compensation Panel. I was given a brochure and an 31 information booklet on the Melbourne Response.
32

33 Independent Commissioner. I met with Mr O'Callaghan 34 on 9 March 2006 at Owen Dixon Chambers. I will never 35 forget Mr O'Callaghan's chambers. It was a massive room - 36 monstrous - it seemed to me to be the domain of an 37 experienced legal professional. There were papers and 38 books strewn everywhere. Mr O'Callaghan looked very 39 comfortable but I was not. I sat down and he started 40 recording our interview. I attended this meeting alone.
41

42 Mr O'Callaghan asked whether I would consent to him 43 seeing the transcript of my conversation with Professor 44 Ball and Ms Sharkey. He said, "I've just got to do what a 45 normal investigator would." At the end of the interview 46 Mr O'Callaghan asked whether I wanted to go to the police.
47 Mr O'Callaghan said words to the effect, "Look, I'm obliged

1 to say that you can go to the cops if you want but, based 2 on what you've told me, I don't think anything is going to 3 happen." I accepted this advice and I did not pursue the 4 police aspect or question what he said.

6 In retrospect I consider it inappropriate that 7 Mr O'Callaghan gave me his opinion about going to the 8 police and what would happen if I did go to them.
9 I believe that Mr O'Callaghan could and should have given 10 me the names of independent lawyers and encouraged me to 11 seek independent legal advice at this point. I left the 12 meeting with Mr O'Callaghan not knowing whether 13 Mr O'Callaghan had accepted my story.

14
15 About six weeks after my meeting with Mr O'Callaghan 16 I received a letter from him dated 20 April 2006. Enclosed 17 with the letter was a copy of the transcript of my 18 interview with Mr O'Callaghan. In the letter 19 Mr O'Callaghan said that based on my memory there did not 20 seem to be much point in taking my matter to the police and 21 that if I did go to the police he would not be able to take 22 any further steps in relation to my case until the police 23 matter was completed.

24
25 The letter also said that on the assumption that 26 I would not go to the police Mr O'Callaghan was satisfied
27 that I was a victim of child sexual abuse by Father Rubeo 28 and that he referred me to the Compensation Panel. Two 29 brochures explaining the role of the Compensation Panel 30 were included with the letter.

31
32 The entire process with Mr O'Callaghan felt very 33 formal. I felt that there was no room in the process for 34 compassion, debate or for me, the victim.

36 Compensation Panel. On 6 September 2006 I received a 37 letter from the Compensation Panel asking me to meet with 38 them.

40 On 31 October 2006 I met with the Compensation Panel, 41 chaired by David Curtain QC. The meeting took place in the 42 evening at Carelink's premises. I attended by myself. By 43 this stage in the process I was emotionally raw. I felt 44 that the only purpose of the meeting was how much I would 45 score out of 55,000, which was the cap on compensation 46 payments under the Melbourne Response at the time.

1 I do not know whether the panel had a report from 2 Professor Ball or Mr O'Callaghan but I understood that they 3 had read through the documents about my case. They asked 4 me to tell them the effects of the abuse on my life. Again 5 I was being asked to tell my story to a group of four 6 strangers around a small table. The Compensation Panel was 7 the first contact with the Melbourne Response where I met 8 with people who I felt had a genuine compassion for 9 victims. They took the time to put me at ease, and 10 explained in a meaningful way who they were and what they 11 did.

13 The meeting did not last long, maybe an hour, and was 14 very awkward. I felt for the panel. I felt that hearing 15 at close range the impact of 25 years of emotional and 16 physical abuse would have been a terrible task. At times 17 they struggled to make eye contact and seemed moved by what 18 I told them.

20 On or around 2 November 2006 I received a letter from 21 Mr Curtain recommending an offer of $17,500 in 22 compensation. I was not given any indication of how the 23 figure was calculated.

24
25 On 13 November 2006 the church's solicitors wrote to 26 me and included a deed of release and a form letter signed 27 by the Archbishop of Melbourne, Denis Hart. The 28 solicitor's note emphasised that there were no 29 confidentiality provisions in the deed of release.

30
31 The letter from Archbishop Hart angered me at the time 32 and it angers me still. It was signed personally by him, 33 but I feel that the sentiment and statements within it are 34 generic.

35
36 I put the deed of release in a drawer at home and did 37 not sign it for more than a year. At that stage I was 38 still seeing Dr Mackenzie every one to two weeks. I told 39 her that I did not want my decision to go through the 40 Melbourne Response to be about money. She advised me to 41 postpone making a decision on the offer until I was ready, 42 and confirmed with Carelink that it would not expire.

44 Signing the offer became part of my healing process.
45 I had made some great progress with Dr Mackenzie's help, 46 and in November 2007 I signed the document and received my 47 compensation payout. My feelings towards the deed of 1 release have changed significantly in the past five years.

2 Signing it helped me emotionally at the time, but now it
3 causes me angst. The Catholic Church has taken so much 4 from me over the years. I feel like the church has exerted
5 complete and total control over my life. I find it ironic
6 that at the point where I finally wrested that control back 7 I signed a document giving up my rights and putting myself 8 again under its control.

10 Effect on my life. For all the things that Father 11 Rubeo did to me, the worst by far was robbing a young boy 12 of his father. For 16 years he inserted himself between us 13 by behaving and making decisions as if he was my father.
14 This despicable act was far worse than any physical abuse 15 could ever have been. It breaks my heart that he took this 16 away from us.
17

18 The journey for every victim of sexual abuse is very 19 different. Some find the strength to get better, to heal 20 and cope. Too many do not. They take their own lives.
21 They abuse others. I consider myself to be one of the 22 lucky ones. I have learnt how to cope, how to recognise 23 what triggers my emotions and what I have to do to manage 24 them. It has taken an enormous amount of effort and time 25 to get to this position, but I know that I can never stand 26 still. This fight will never end for me, but I am getting 27 better at fighting it.
28

29 My recommendations. I would like to see Carelink 30 re-designed and reinvigorated. I want Carelink to become 31 the Catholic Church's 100-year plan to deal with victims of 32 abuse. The plan needs to have clear processes that make it 33 easier for victims to know where to go and what to do. It 34 needs to be given sufficient resources and brought into the 35 new century.
36

37 In Carelink's re-design it would be helpful for them
38 to specify their "rules of engagement". Their website 39 should explain how they deal with victims, who we need to 40 speak to, what we need to do and what we and our families 41 will be entitled to. We should be given other avenues to 42 access counselling services. To this day, Ms Sharkey 43 remains the gatekeeper for access to counselling services.
44 I now find it too traumatic to speak with Carelink and my 45 last contact with them was over five years ago.
46

47 I would like my wife to be able to easily access

1 Carelink's counselling services. I do not want her to have 2 to explain to a stranger why she qualifies. I do not want 3 her checked up on. I do not want her to worry about how 4 many counselling sessions she might be entitled to. I do
5 not want her to be asked for her Medicare details to help 6 pay for the service.

8 I want the church to acknowledge that the deeds of 9 release signed by victims through the Melbourne Response 10 may add to a victim's burden and exacerbate the very 11 problem they were designed to alleviate. For those victims 12 that so desire, I want the church to demonstrate its 13 compassionate intent by releasing those victims from their 14 obligations under the deeds.
15

16 I want the church to acknowledge that the value of 17 individual compensation payments made to victims grossly 18 undervalues the impact of sexual abuse on victims. I would 19 like to see the Compensation Panel re-open every case of 20 compensation and make an independent assessment of uncapped 21 compensation. The process should be transparent and 22 benchmarked against standards from within the secular 23 community. Society must decide what is considered fair and 24 adequate compensation, not the institution.
25

26 I want the church to show compassion for its victims.
27 Sadly, I believe that my story reflects the broader 28 approach of the Catholic Church to paedophilia and sexual 29 abuse, including the Melbourne Response. I feel that the 30 mental health and healing of survivors are not the core 31 issues driving the church's approach to the issue, but the 32 protection of the institution via suppression and silence 33 is utmost.
34

35 I do not need or want a personal apology. I do not 36 want the church burnt down. All I want is someone from the 37 Catholic Church to show compassion and give me a call one 38 day and say, "Hi Paul. How are you going these days? How 39 are you and your family getting along? Can I do anything 40 to help?"
41

42 MS FURNESS: Your Honour, I note the time. It might be 43 appropriate to take -- 44

45 THE CHAIR: Does anyone else have any -- 46

47 MR CASH: Yes. I represent Mr Hersbach and he wants to 1 elaborate on some things.

3 THE CHAIR: We will take the lunch adjournment and come 4 back at 2 o'clock.

8 LUNCHEON ADJOURNMENT

10 THE CHAIR: Ms Furness, we should explain to everyone, 11 particularly those who might have been watching on the Net, 12 that unfortunately we have now lost two hours because, as 13 I understand it, of a partial failure of the electricity 14 system in the City of Melbourne, but we are grateful to 15 everyone for their patience in waiting for those who have 16 worked hard to bring our systems back into some level of 17 function. What we will do is sit on until 5 o'clock or 18 thereabouts, depending upon where you get with 19 the witnesses today.

20

21 MS FURNESS: Thank you, Your Honour. My learned friend 22 was about to ask questions.

23

24 THE CHAIR: There is no-one else who wants to ask 25 questions, is there?

26

27 MR RUSKIN: No, Your Honour.

28

29 MR GRAY: No, Your Honour.

30

31 THE CHAIR: Very well. Thank you.

32

33 <PAUL DANIEL HERSBACH, recalled: [4.04pm]

34

35 <EXAMINATION BY MR CASH:

36

37 MR CASH: Q. Cash is my name and I appear on behalf of 38 Mr Hersbach. Sir, you have instructed me, haven't you, how 39 it is that there are some aspects of your statement that 40 you want to elaborate upon, is that right?

41 A. Yes, that's correct.

42

43 Q. We are conscious of the time and we want to focus on 44 those particular areas that you are keen to provide over 45 the course of perhaps 10 minutes some elaboration --

46

47 THE CHAIR: Just make sure that you cover what Mr Hersbach

1 wants you to cover because I don't want you or him to feel 2 constrained by time not to tell us what he would like to 3 tell us. Do you understand?
4 A. Yes, I do.

6 MR CASH: Thank you for that indication, Your Honour.
7 Sir, can I take you to paragraph 29 of your statement.
8 Have you got that in front of you there?
9 A. No, sir.

10
11 Q. You have it there, do you?
12 A. I do.

14 Q. Paragraph 29?
15 A. Yes.

17 Q. Paragraph 29 you say this. You say: 18
19 I have never been asked for my Medicare
20 details during my engagement with Carelink.
21 My wife has accessed Carelink counselling 22 services as a secondary victim. She has 23 told me that she was asked by Carelink to 24 provide her Medicare details and that she 25 refused. My sisters and father told me
26 that they have provided their Medicare
27 details at Carelink's request. I do not 28 think it is appropriate that Medicare
29 should pay for Carelink services.

30
31 I understand you wanted to elaborate on that. Why is it 32 that it's your view that it's inappropriate that Medicare 33 should pay for the Carelink services?
34 A. My views have changed. I personally didn't think when 35 I was asked for Medicare details there was a problem until 36 my wife came home and it was the position that put her in, 37 I think her perspective, a different perspective from 38 someone who hadn't been involved with the Melbourne 39 Response for a long time. Her view and one that 40 I absolutely share is that I don't believe that the 41 taxpayer should be funding the counselling that we 42 received, and furthermore I don't believe it's appropriate 43 that the Church represents that they pay for these services 44 where in fact they are paying for the gap between what the 45 counsellor charges and what Medicare covers.

46
47 THE CHAIR: I understand. Just keep going. We have some 1 technical issues up here, but it won't affect the evidence.

3 MR CASH: Thank you. I understand you would feel 4 interested to know, it would help you to know to the extent 5 to which the community has had to pay for these things?

6 A. Absolutely. I believe as part of this process that 7 the Church should disclose how much has been claimed on 8 Medicare for those services.

10 Q. At paragraph 34 of your statement you are talking in 11 that paragraph about how it was that you met with 12 Ms Sharkey and Professor Ball at Carelink and how it was 13 that you "found this meeting exceptionally traumatic.
14 There were two of them and one of me and I felt as though 15 I was being interrogated." You say, "I found having two 16 people speak at once to me as a victim to be extremely 17 confronting." I understand that you want to address the 18 Royal Commission in relation to a concern as to why was it 19 necessary that you be questioned by two people; is that 20 right?

21 A. Yes, that's correct. The process that Carelink took 22 us through sitting in a room with a psychiatrist and having 23 someone there listening in when they're asking you intimate 24 personal questions about your sex life, about things that 25 you have done, about what your thoughts are, this is 26 confronting for a victim with a psychologist. It can often 27 take years for a victim to get to the point with their own 28 psychiatrist or help to talk about issues, and what 29 happened with Carelink is in meeting one, hour one, minute 30 one, they were into it and I found that extremely 31 confronting.

32

33 Q. You talk about the Independent Commissioner at 34 paragraphs 37 and thereafter, and I want to ask you a 35 little bit about that because you say this. You say that 36 in relation to Mr O'Callaghan:

37

38 He said, "I've just got to do what a normal 39 investigator would." At the end of the 40 interview, Mr O'Callaghan asked whether 41 I wanted to go to the police.

42 Mr O'Callaghan said words to the effect of, 43 "Look, I'm obliged to say that you can go 44 to the cops if you want but, based on what 45 you've told me, I don't think anything is 46 going to happen." I accepted this advice 47 and I did not pursue the police aspect or

1 question what he said.

3 You call it advice, "I accepted this advice". Did you 4 truly understand that to be advice or what was the 5 situation?

6 A. The situation and the circumstance I came to be in 7 O'Callaghan's chambers is I was a victim. It all happened
8 very quickly. I had met with Carelink and within a couple 9 of days I was in his chambers at Owen Dixon Chambers.
10 I had studied. I had come out of university recently. I 11 had friends who had been through the legal profession and 12 it was evident to me that this was somebody who had 13 achieved a lot in their career and got to a certain point.
14 So, when you study yourself I think you gain an 15 appreciation for the intelligence of others and you gain an 16 impression of them. At that time I thought, you know, he 17 was a significant enough and senior enough authority that 18 I didn't question at all when he said that. You know, 19 I put the thought out of my mind completely about going to 20 the police.

22 Q. He ultimately sent you a letter and it reminded you 23 that you have:

24

25 ... a continuing and unfettered right to 26 report the matter to the police and 27 I encourage the exercise of that right. In 28 your case, however, with respect to the 29 unsurprising haziness of your memory, there 30 would not appear to be much point in your 31 taking the matter to the police. However, 32 that's a matter for you.

33

34 Did you regard that as advice or how did you regard that?

35 A. I did regard it at the time as advice. As I said, my 36 impression of him was well formed at that stage having 37 visited him in his chambers and I came to the conclusion 38 that he was probably qualified to give me that advice.

39

40 Q. What was the situation? Were you inclined to think 41 that you would go to the police or not in the absence of 42 that advice?

43 A. No, I hadn't. I knew my father had been and it had 44 been a very difficult process at that point to go to the 45 police. A lot has changed since, and I was aware of my 46 father's circumstances and his difficulty and that, coupled 47 with Mr O'Callaghan's comments to me, meant that I didn't 1 go to the police.

3 Q. Are you able to say as to whether your thinking might 4 have been, "Well, I would have gone to the police had it 5 not been for that advice"?

6 A. I think I'd say I just didn't know any better.

8 Q. How did that advice impact upon your decision to go or 9 not to go to the police?

10 A. Based on that advice, I did not go to the police.

11

12 Q. You say in paragraph 40:

13

14 In retrospect I consider it inappropriate
15 that Mr O'Callaghan gave me his opinion 16 about going to the police and what would 17 happen if I did go to them. I believe that 18 Mr O'Callaghan could and should have given 19 me the names of independent lawyers and 20 encouraged me to seek independent legal 21 advice at this point.

23 Was he not independent, did you feel, or what?

24 A. No, at that stage he was - his role in that meeting 25 I had with him was to determine whether I was a victim of 26 abuse. So I don't believe he was independent at that time.

27

28 Q. And what do you say now in retrospect about somebody 29 in his position with respect to him giving a view about as 30 to whether, if you go to the police, it will be pursued or 31 not?

32 A. My recollection of it now and the reason for including 33 those comments in paragraph 40 was that I was in a 34 vulnerable position at that stage. I was a victim at the 35 time and I was also fairly young. I was probably only in 36 my early 20s and I guess as I have grown to know myself you 37 learn what you don't know a lot about and I think at that 38 time if I look back and were to give myself advice now 39 I would say I didn't know what I didn't know.

40

41 Q. Later in your statement you talk about how it is you 42 attended at the panel hearing and an amount of money in the 43 sum of $17,500 was recommended and you also talk very 44 encouragingly about Mr Curtain and his empathetic response 45 and you wanted to endorse that, did you?

46 A. Absolutely. I mentioned in my statement that that was 47 the first group of people in the process that were

1 compassionate and the things that they did that showed 2 their compassion was the way they spoke to me, the way they 3 introduced themselves, the way - it was obvious to me that 4 on reflection that they had been trained and taught to 5 behave in a certain way and that was appreciated.

7 Q. You have instructed me how in future you think - and 8 correct me if I'm wrong about this in my terminology - that 9 a victim might be assisted to know as to the ins and outs 10 as to why it is that a particular sum has been determined 11 as appropriate?

12 A. Certainly. It's a difficult - determining a level of 13 compensation is always going to be a difficult thing 14 because it will always tend people to compare and you want 15 to know on a scale, it's a points system, where do you sit 16 on the scale. I don't have an answer for that. However, 17 in reading the documents since then I have become aware 18 that there have been some guidelines internally that the 19 Compensation Panel have used for determining how much was 20 given and I think this process, I'd like that to become 21 evident and I think that society should have a say in 22 determining what the victim should get.

23
24 Q. A topic that you particularly want me to take the 25 Royal Commission to is the subject of the letter that was 26 received by you and it's dated 10 November 2006 and appears 27 at tab 250. It's the letter from Archbishop Hart to 28 yourself. You have concerns about victims being written to 29 in the manner in which it was phrased. Can you explain?

30 A. It's both the manner and the mechanism. In my 31 statements before I talked about getting a phone call, 32 someone from the Church making a genuine attempt to 33 understand who I was. I think it would have been - the 34 sentiment that he has conveyed in that letter could easily 35 have been and I think in my case it was justified that he 36 would have asked to at least meet with me and conveyed it 37 personally. That would have made a huge difference to me.

38
39 Q. You appreciate that it was well intended?

40 A. Absolutely. Through this whole process it's been my 41 experience that the vast majority or all of the people 42 involved in the Melbourne Response have had good intentions 43 sometimes or well meaning intentions, often not without a 44 lot of experience in dealing with victims. What I mean by 45 that is I don't believe they set out to create problems for 46 us, but I also don't believe they have been able to 47 identify that the process has created problems for victims.

2 Q. It concludes:
3

4 On behalf of the Catholic Church and
5 personally, I apologise to you and to those 6 around you for the wrongs and hurt you have 7 suffered at the hands of Father Rubeo.
8 Whether or not you chose to accept the 9 enclosed offer, I offer you my prayers.
10 Yours sincerely in Christ.
11

12 It is signed by the Archbishop of Melbourne. What do you 13 want to convey to the Royal Commission about the manner in 14 which it is signed off?

15 A. Yes, it's funny. The thing that affects me about this 16 note, see how he's put the cross next to his name? That's 17 what Rubeo did when he signed his name.
18

19 Q. You particularly wanted to say something about "Yours 20 sincerely in Christ"; is that right?

21 A. Yes, to a victim, to be told that again by the 22 perpetrators, it shows a lack of understanding of - it 23 shows their lack of understanding of how I feel.
24

25 Q. In paragraph 53 of your statement you say this: 26

27 Signing it helped me emotionally at the 28 time, but now causes me angst. The 29 Catholic Church has taken so much from me 30 over the years. I feel like the Church has 31 exerted complete and total control over my 32 life. I find it ironic that, at the point 33 where I finally wrested that control back, 34 I signed a document giving up my rights and 35 putting myself again under its control.
36

37 What do you mean by that?

38 A. It took me over a year to sign the deed of release.
39 I'm fortunate I wasn't in a position where the money was 40 going to make a huge difference to my life. It wasn't 41 about that. I signed it, at the time it helped. I have to 42 say for two or three years it was a really good thing. But 43 this particular sentiment came out in the process of 44 preparing to make my submissions to the Royal Commission 45 where I took that document out and the legal nature of the 46 document, the fact that I have signed over my rights again 47 to the Catholic Church and my ability to pursue, regardless

1 of whether I wanted to, still causes me angst.

3 Q. You have signed up to this document and this process.
4 Despite that, you at the end of your statement are quite 5 pointedly describing how it is that you wish that "the 6 Church to demonstrate its compassionate intent by releasing 7 those victims from their obligations under the deeds." Do 8 you think that's something that would mean very much to 9 yourself?

10 A. Absolutely. The deeds do nothing for the victims, so 11 they are a mechanism that the Church has used that, 12 frankly, they don't make a difference to the victims at 13 all.

15 Q. Would that help the healing process if the Church took 16 that step?

17 A. Without doubt it would help the healing process. It 18 would be an indication of their compassion towards victims 19 to release them from those deeds.

20

21 Q. If the Church took that step, how would that impact 22 upon your perception as to its being genuine about its 23 intention to assist those who have suffered at the hands 24 of --

25 A. I think it goes to the whole point of the response 26 needing to be genuine. You know, "genuine" is a subjective 27 term, so people are going to make their own opinions about 28 what's genuine and what's not and you are going to hear 29 from me and others about what we think is genuine. The way 30 I have been treated as a counter pointer as an example is 31 that the way that I have been treated by the Royal 32 Commission from the time I made a private statement to me 33 sitting in a box today, I think the model of how they 34 should treat and the way to be compassionate is actually 35 already set. We only need to look at what the Commission 36 has set up, the support they have given victims, the 37 follow-up, the phone calls, the process, the 38 professionalism of it, is exactly what the Church needs to 39 do. It can be done. There is a way. It just needs well 40 meaning people who want to help the victims to do it from 41 the start.

42

43 THE CHAIR: Mr Hersbach, can I just ask you: in relation 44 to the deed, is there any one issue in the deed that stands 45 out as one that you would see as requiring the Church to 46 set aside?

47 A. It's the nature of the document. There's this

1 document that sits in my house, Your Honour, that is a 2 symbol of what they've done. So the document in itself, 3 I don't have plans now to go and do something about it.
4 It's the fact that in a drawer at home is this document
5 that says, with my signature, saying I have given my rights 6 over to the Church on this.

8 MR CASH: Q. Just following on from His Honour's 9 questioning, in relation to your wanting to be released 10 from the obligations, in particular if you were allowed to 11 sue the Church, how do you think that that would assist 12 your healing process?

13 A. I've not considered suing the Church personally. I'm 14 in a position in my life where, as I said, I think I'm one 15 of the lucky ones where I have been able to be well 16 educated and have a career and I don't want for much.
17 I think I am the exception to the rule. In the 300-odd 18 victims that were spoken about this morning, I think it 19 would have far more effect on some of those lives than my 20 own.

22 Q. So in conclusion, sir, so far as my questioning is 23 concerned, is there any overwhelming suggestion that you 24 would like to make in terms of future processes, what you 25 think might be a good process in future?

26 A. I would just like to reiterate that I think the model 27 is set with the Royal Commission and I think the people and 28 the processes that have been set up for victims are the 29 blueprint for the Catholic Church to use in dealing with 30 others.

31
32 MR CASH: No further questions, thank you.

33
34 THE CHAIR: Yes, Ms Furness.

35
36 MS FURNESS: Nothing further, Your Honour.

37
38 THE CHAIR: Thank you, Mr Hersbach. You may step down.
39 Thank you for coming. You are excused.

<EXAMINATION BY MS FURNESS:

MS FURNESS: Q. Sir, you have made a statement to the Royal Commission?

A. Yes, I have.

Q. And you have a copy of that statement with you?

A. Yes, I have.

Q. And it is dated 31 July 2014?

A. That's correct.

Q. I understand at paragraph 29 you wish to add a couple of words?

A. Yes, that's right.

Q. As it currently reads, "In about June 2011, after the Melbourne Response process had finished", you wish to add the words "Compensation Panel" after "response"; is that right?

A. That's correct, yes.

Q. So the sentence is in relation to the end of the compensation part of the Melbourne Response?

A. That's correct, yes.

Q. Thank you. With that amendment, sir, are the contents of your statement true and correct?

A. Yes.

MS FURNESS: I tender that statement.

EXHIBIT #16-4 STATEMENT OF [AFA] DATED 31/7/2014

1 MS FURNESS: Q. I invite you, sir, to read your 2 statement.

3 A. Thank you. This statement made by me accurately sets
4 out the evidence that I'm prepared to give to the Royal 5 Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual 6 Abuse. The statement is true and correct to the best of my 7 knowledge and belief.

9 Where speech is referred to in this statement, it is 10 provided in words or words to the effect of those which 11 were used to the best of my recollection.

12
13 My full name is [AFA]. I was born in 1962. I grew up 14 in Reservoir in Melbourne and went to St Gabriel's Primary 15 School. My local parish was St Gabriel's Catholic Church, 16 Reservoir.

18 When I was 14, I met Father Michael Glennon at a 19 karate school he had just opened at St Gabriel's. Father 20 Glennon ran a foundation called the Peaceful Hand Youth 21 Foundation, which he founded.

23 I went to karate school about once a week, but I saw 24 Father Glennon more than that. I used to go to the 25 presbytery all the time and hang out with him. We would 26 hang out with a cup of coffee and play pool. I saw him as 27 a father figure.

28
29 Sexual abuse. Father Glennon sexually abused me three 30 times over a period of about 18 months from when I was 31 about 15.

32
33 The first time it happened, Father Glennon and I were 34 going to St Monica's at Moonee Ponds, where he was opening 35 a new karate school. When I was in the car with him he 36 told me that he was bisexual. After the karate 37 demonstration we drove back to the church. He fondled and 38 molested me in his car in the car park at the back of 39 St Gabriel's presbytery.

40
41 The next time Father Glennon took me camping to 42 Lancefield in Victoria, where the karate school had a camp.
43 I slept in a two-man tent with Father Glennon. That night 44 he sexually abused me as well.

45
46 A few months later Father Glennon took me to stay 47 overnight at Lancefield. By that time the Peaceful Hand

1 Foundation had built a hall on the Lancefield camp, which 2 had a private room for Father Glennon. That night I slept 3 in Father Glennon's double bed with him, and he again 4 fondled me.

6 Impact on my life. After Father Glennon abused me
7 I felt ashamed and I felt down. It affected my self-worth 8 and I suffered from psychological problems, including 9 anxiety and depression. It also affected my schooling and 10 HSC.

12 About one year after the abuse occurred I told a 13 friend of mine what had happened to me. That was the only 14 person I ever told until I was 40 years old. I felt that 15 I could not tell my family at the time as I felt it was my 16 fault.

18 When I was in my early 40s I was very depressed and 19 suffering from serious self-worth issues. I could not work 20 for about three years. I was drinking heavily and my 21 marriage was on shaky ground. I sought psychiatric help.
22 I eventually told my counsellor about the abuse.

23 24 Melbourne Response. In 2011 I was feeling on top of 25 my depression. I looked back on my life and thought the 26 next step, if I was going to get well, was to face up as to 27 what happened to me. I had also followed Father Glennon's 28 trials in the media. I knew that he was in prison and that 29 he would be out of prison in about 2016. I wanted to keep 30 him in prison because I thought that he would reoffend and 31 I did not want this happening to other kids.

32
33 I saw a pamphlet for the Melbourne Response in my 34 local church. I rang the number listed there and spoke to 35 Peter O'Callaghan QC, the Independent Commissioner under 36 the Melbourne Response. We arranged a time for me to come 37 to his chambers and speak to him.

38 39 I met with Mr O'Callaghan on 18 February 2011 in his 40 chambers. He interviewed me about Father Glennon's abuse.
41 He was the first person in a position of authority that 42 I told of my abuse.

43
44 During this interview I said to Mr O'Callaghan, "If 45 there is any chance of putting Father Glennon back in 46 prison, I think I would go to the police because I just 47 know that he will reoffend." Mr O'Callaghan told me that

1 I had the right to take my matter to the police. He said 2 that it would not be difficult for me to satisfy him that 3 I had been a victim and he would then refer me to Carelink
4 for free counselling and I could apply for compensation up 5 to $75,000. He also said that if I went to the police, 6 then this application would be postponed.

8 Mr O'Callaghan said that the police process might take 9 a couple of years and that he was not able to investigate 10 my matter during this time. He also said that it was very 11 unlikely Father Glennon would get much more of a sentence 12 even if he was convicted again. I was taken aback by these 13 comments. I felt that Mr O'Callaghan was trying to 14 discourage me from going to the police. I did not go to 15 the police at the time.
16

17 After my meeting with Mr O'Callaghan I received a 18 letter from him dated 21 February 2011. The letter set out 19 a list of matters for me to consider about whether I should 20 go to the police with my complaint. The letter included a 21 transcript of our interview. The letter also referred to a 22 second letter that he had forwarded to me which I was to 23 disregard if I went to the police.
24

25 The second letter was also dated 21 February 2011.
26 This letter said that Mr O'Callaghan was satisfied that 27 I was a victim of sexual abuse by Father Glennon and that 28 I could be referred to Carelink and to the Compensation 29 Panel.
30

31 Some time after my meeting with Mr O'Callaghan I met 32 with Susan Sharkey at Carelink in East Melbourne. She 33 referred me to a psychiatrist, Sue Brann, for a psychiatric 34 assessment. On 15 February 2011 I met with Sue Brann and 35 Susan Sharkey at Sue Brann's office. My wife came with me 36 as a support person. I found this meeting pretty 37 confronting. I had to again revisit Father Glennon's abuse 38 and the impact this had had on my life. I have not 39 received professional services from Carelink since this 40 meeting, but I did continue to forward Carelink receipts 41 for my ongoing medical costs which they reimbursed me for.
42

43 In May 2011 I received a letter from David Curtain QC 44 which said that Mr O'Callaghan had accepted my story and 45 proposed to meet me on 30 May 2011.
46

47 I met the Compensation Panel, which was chaired by

1 Mr Curtain, on 30 May 2011 at Carelink. There were four 2 panel members. I did not take a support person with me.
3 The panel introduced themselves and explained what they 4 were going to do in the meeting. I found it pretty 5 daunting to go into a room with a QC and a panel of other 6 people.

8 In June 2011 I received a letter from Richard Leder, 9 the Archdiocese's lawyer, offering me $50,000 in 10 compensation. The Archdiocese also offered to pay for any 11 counselling, medication or hospitalisation related to the 12 abuse. I knew that the compensation payments were capped 13 at $75,000. I was not given any explanation of how the 14 offer to me of $50,000 was calculated.
15

16 I did not think that this was adequate compensation
17 for the effect the abuse had had on my life. On 27 June 18 2011 I wrote to Richard Leder and told him that as well as 19 the physical, emotional and mental suffering I had endured 20 since the abuse, I had lost about $250,000 in wages due to 21 a major depressive disorder. I also told him that I was 22 rejecting the Archdiocese's offer because it was not 23 satisfactory and that I may commence legal proceedings.
24

25 Mr Leder wrote to me on 30 June 2011 and said that the 26 offer was not a starting point for negotiations, that he 27 was not in a position to make a higher offer, and that the 28 original offer would remain open for acceptance.
29

30 A few days later, after speaking with a friend's 31 brother who was a barrister, I decided to accept the offer.
32 At the time I was not functioning very well and I wanted to 33 get this over and done with. I wrote to Mr Leder on 5 July 34 2011 accepting the offer and sent him a signed deed of 35 release.
36

37 With the letter offering compensation I also received 38 a letter of apology from Archbishop Denis Hart. I think 39 this should have been a personal apology in a face-to-face 40 meeting. No member of the clergy has ever attempted to 41 contact me or to apologise about the abuse of Father 42 Glennon.
43

44 In about June 2011, after the Melbourne Response 45 compensation tribunal meeting, I reported my abuse to the 46 Faulkner Police Station. The police were fantastic. They 47 were very empathetic and told me they were very keen to 1 progress the matter. The police reassured me that I was 2 preyed on and that the abuse was not my fault at all.

4 The Office of Public Prosecutions ended up laying 5 charges against Father Glennon. The trial of my case was 6 set down for June 2014, however Father Glennon died in 7 prison on New Year's Day in 2014.

9 Soon after I had spoken with the Office of Public 10 Prosecutions, I got a phone call from Mr O'Callaghan. He 11 said he understood that I had gone to the police and asked 12 me what was happening. I told him that the matter was with 13 the police and the Office of Public Prosecutions and 14 I could not say anything further.

15
16 Also in 2011 I made an application to the Victims of 17 Crime Assistance Tribunal. I had an initial interview.
18 I told them I had reached a settlement and received 19 compensation from the Catholic Church and detailed my 20 medical costs. After this interview, the tribunal obtained 21 the transcript of my police interview.

22
23 On 14 August 2013 the tribunal offered me $12,128.45 24 as reimbursement of medical expenses, which I accepted.

25
26 Reflections on the Melbourne Response. The Melbourne 27 Response did not meet my expectations. I felt pressure to 28 go through the Melbourne Response because I had followed 29 John Ellis's case against the Church in New South Wales 30 about his own child sexual abuse, and I thought the Church
31 would rely on the defence if I tried to take them to court.
32 I did not think I had any other options for seeking 33 compensation.

34 35 I think I should have been offered independent legal 36 advice about my options of suing the Church and reporting 37 to the police when I first contacted the Melbourne 38 Response.

39
40 I also think that the police should have been involved 41 straight away, and that it is important that allegations of 42 criminal behaviour be investigated by an outside, 43 independent organisation. I do not think institutions 44 should investigate themselves. I understand that the 45 Independent Commissioner is appointed and paid by the 46 Church.

1 I have never been asked for feedback on the Melbourne
2 Response process or how it could be improved.

4 Q. Thank you. Can I take you back to paragraph 18 of 5 your statement. You say in paragraph 18 that during the 6 interview with Mr O'Callaghan you felt that he was trying 7 to discourage you from going to the police; do you see 8 that?

9 A. Yes.

10

11 Q. And then in the next paragraph you refer to the letter 12 you received, and perhaps we could have that tab 269 on the 13 screen. Now, that's a copy of the letter you were 14 referring to?

15 A. Yes, it is.

16

17 Q. And if we can just scroll down the document. If we 18 can just stop there. Do you see that last full paragraph:

19

20 I now set out for your consideration 21 matters that you might consider relevant to 22 the question of whether you should go to 23 the police.

24 A. Yes.

25

26 Q. And, firstly, you are told that you are under no 27 obligation to go and many complainants do not. Secondly, 28 he refers to your concern of Glennon being released will 29 reoffend; that was a matter you raised with him?

30 A. I beg your pardon?

31

32 Q. That was a matter you raised with Mr O'Callaghan in 33 the meeting?

34 A. Yes, it was.

35

36 Q. And then if we can just scroll down to the next page.
37 There in paragraph 3 there's reference to your comment that 38 it can't be assumed he will be convicted because of it 39 being his word against yours; do you see that?

40 A. Yes, I do.

41

42 Q. And then he tells you of the years that the offences 43 had occurred; do you see that?

44 A. Yes.

46 Q. Was that something that was discussed during the 47 interview or was that new information to you?

1 A. I can't really recall.

3 Q. Then the next paragraph is a reference to many of the 4 offences being similar to that of which you complained, and 5 Mr O'Callaghan said that it would have to be considered 6 likely that the court perhaps would not imprison him or 7 alternatively for a relatively short period; do you see 8 that?

9 A. Yes, I do.

10

11 Q. And that was something that was discussed in the 12 interview with you?

13 A. It was, yes.

14

15 Q. Then if we can just scroll down further, you are then 16 advised about the sex offenders registration and what 17 effect that Act might have on Glennon after his release?

18 A. Yes.

20 Q. Was that something that had been discussed in the 21 interview with you?

22 A. I truthfully can't recall if that was discussed.

23

24 Q. Then if we can just scroll down further to paragraph 25 numbered 7, there is reference there to a real possibility 26 that the police would decline to charge if of the opinion 27 that at the end of the day he wouldn't be in prison for a 28 significant period. Was that something raised in the 29 interview with you?

30 A. Yes, it was.

31

32 Q. And then it was confirmed that if you went to the 33 police Mr O'Callaghan would take no further steps?

34 A. That's correct.

35

36 Q. And that was something that was raised in the 37 interview too, was it not?

38 A. Yes, it was.

39

40 Q. What did you think when you read that letter in terms 41 of going to the police?

42 A. Well, my initial impression was that it would be a 43 waste of time going to the police.

44

45 Q. Based on the matters set out by Mr O'Callaghan in his 46 letter?

47 A. Yes, basically that he wouldn't get any more time in 1 pri son.

3 Q. You did ultimately go to the police --

4 A. Yes.

6 Q. -- after the Compensation Panel process had completed.
7 Why did you change your mind?

8 A. I changed my mind just for my own benefit. I really 9 had to see this through. It's all about healing, and I had 10 done the initial step, but I really had to see this 11 through. I wanted to eyeball the person that had done the 12 abuse to me in a court and get a conviction against him.
13 That's why.

14

15 MS FURNESS: Thank you, sir. I have no further questions.

16

17 THE CHAIR: Does anyone at the Bar table have any 18 questions?

19

20 MR WOODS: No, Your Honour.

21

22 MR GRAY: No, Your Honour.

23

24 MR CASH: No, Your Honour.

25

26 THE CHAIR: Very well. Thank you, sir, for coming and 27 telling us your story. You are now excused from further 28 attendance.

29

30 <THE WITNESS WITHDREW

31

32 MS FURNESS: Your Honour, the next witness is Peter 33 O'Callaghan. I expect he will be giving evidence for some 34 time. Perhaps, given the hour, it might be preferable to 35 start his evidence at 10 in the morning, but I'm in 36 Your Honour's and Commissioners' hands.

37

38 THE CHAIR: That's satisfactory to us. Is it satisfactory 39 to Mr O'Callaghan?

40

41 MR WOODS: It is, Your Honour.

42

43 THE CHAIR: Very well. We will adjourn --

44

45 MR RUSKIN: Just before Your Honour adjourns may I raise a 46 very short matter which is we are here for Mr Leder, and of 47 course we want to be here when he gives his evidence, and

1 we have the transcript. But we wondered if we could be 2 flexible with respect to attendance when other people come.

4 THE CHAIR: You may, and you can judge that for 5 yourself.

7 MR RUSKIN: Thank you very much.

8

9 THE CHAIR: Very well. We will adjourn until 10 o'clock 10 in the morning.
