

Impressive Investiture Held By Columbian Squires Circle

Unity Circle No. 55, Columbian Squires, admitted 12 new members to their number during ceremonies Sunday. Formal induction ceremonies took place during the afternoon at St. Patrick's Church parish hall.

The candidates, with established members and representatives of Ottawa Council 485, Knights of Columbus, attended a communion breakfast during the morning following mass at Blessed Sacrament Church.

Guest speaker was Msgr. Basil Markle, secretary of the Canadian Catholic Conference. Presiding was Gregory J. King, Chief Squire of Unity Circle No. 55, and State Chief Squire for Ontario. Also at the head table was M. J. Beahen, Grand Knight, Ottawa Council 485, Knights of Columbus, as well as other members.

Jean Richard, MP, Ottawa East, was speaker at a banquet in Blessed Sacrament Church hall following formal induction. Mr. Richard was introduced by Barry McGrory and thanked by John K. McManus.

On behalf of the newly-inducted members, Barry Leahy briefly addressed the gathering. Among guests present was Canon A. E. Armstrong, Mr. Beahen, and J. C. Allen, Past Grand Knight of Ottawa Council.

New members admitted to Unity Circle were: John Abbott, Antonio Fuoco, Barry Leahy, Peter Lesaux, Frank Martin, Howard Mason, Edward McHale, John McInerny, Robert Pelot, George Sullivan, Patrick Timmins and Morgan Watters.

CHALLENGE TO INDUSTRY.

CANBERRA, Sept. 26. — Devaluation of the Australian pound presents a challenge to Australian industry and workers, Prime Minister Chifley said yesterday. He said increased production of better-quality goods could be "a valuable contribution to meeting our dollar difficulties".