

Bruno Primavera Dies; Market Partner, 63

Bruno Primavera, 63, of 50 Springdale avenue, Stratford, co-owner of Primavera's Market in Devon, died Saturday in Bridgeport hospital.

Services will take place Tuesday at 9 a.m. in the Gregory F. Doyle funeral home, 201 Bridgeport avenue, Devon, and at 10 o'clock in St. James church. Burial will be in Mount St. Peter cemetery, Derby.

Born in Kingston, N.Y., Mr. Primavera resided in Stratford for 46 years. He was a member of the Stratford Senior citizens.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Teresa Sabatini Priva Primavera; a son, the Rev. Bruno F. Primavera, of Toronto, Ont., Canada; a daughter, Mrs. Judith Helley, of East Haven; his mother, Mrs. Venusta Primavera, of Milford; four sisters, Mrs. Delia Verna, of Stratford, Mrs. Vera McGuire, of Milford, and Mrs. Ida Lyons, of Los Altos, Calif.; Miss Mary Primavera, of Costa Mesa, Calif.; and several nieces and nephews.