

Sterling House To Open Day Camp

A six-week summer day camp program will begin July 10 at Sterling house, according to Mrs. Mary Hardy, executive secretary.

Directing the camp will be two coordinators, Mrs. W. Grant Fitch and Bruno Primavera.

Mrs. Fitch is junior program director at Sterling house. Prior to her appointment here she was crafts director at Camp Tapa-wingo in the Poconos for two years, and was also director of the counselor - in - training program at the camp for a year. She was also program director at Camp Epworth for children of elementary school age.

Well versed in music, she taught recorder for adults and children at Sterling house for several years. She has just returned from a trip to Sweden where she had visited schools and craft centers to learn many new techniques and to gather new ideas to use in the summer camp program.

Mr. Primavera is a native of Stratford and received his early training in Stratford schools. He received a B A degree from St. Mary's seminary, Baltimore, Md., and an M A degree from Fairfield university.

He is a social studies teacher at Bunnell and Stratford high schools, and for the past eight years he was recreation counselor with the town department of Recreation. He is also advisor for the Junior Honor society at Stratford high school.

Registrations are being taken for all or part of the six week program, and a call to Sterling House or a visit will bring fur-
