Father Christopher, 20th Principal of St. Thomas, Passes Away. Rev. Jordon Judd Homily Included.

January 23, 2006 -

Basilian Father Charles Christopher, C.S.B., died on Sunday morning, January 22, after a brief illness. Father Christopher was the 20th principal of St. Thomas High School, serving from 1981 to 1987.

It was during Father Christopher's term as principal that the Campus Ministry was organized with Father Jack Hanna as the coordinator. Father Christopher oversaw the renovation of our gymnasium and the addition of the Science classrooms and the Physical Education locker rooms.

Besides his years at St. Thomas, Father Christopher served as a teacher in several Basilian schools as well as Vocation Director of the Basilian Congregation. After his time at St. Thomas, Father Christopher was pastor of St. Theresa's Church in Sugar Land and of St. Anne's Church in Houston. He was currently living at Dillon House in Houston, the Basilian Fathers retirement home.

Father Christopher was always interested in St. Thomas and he returned here to celebrate all-school Eucharist many times, including our Founder's Day Mass this past September. He also came every time we celebrated the Sacrament of Reconciliation as a school community. Father Christopher once remarked after helping Father Hanna with a
