O'FLAHERTY, Fr. Thomas C.

Born in Cork, Ireland on January 21, 1923, he earned a B.A. Degree in Philosophy in 1944 from University College Cork. He received his first Master's Degree from the Catholic University in Washington, D.C. and later, did further post-graduate work at Boston College. It was there he earned his second Master's of Arts Degree in 1952. He was ordained as Society of Missionaries to Africa priest on June 8, 1948 at the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C. As a member of Mensa and a lifetime scholar he diligently pursued his studies and at the age of 82 he received his Doctorate Degree in Medieval Latin. Fr. Tom's first assignment was to the Soceity's Queen of Apostles seminary in Dedham, Massachusetts. He had a number of assignments in Augusta, Georgia, and Los Angeles, California until he was elected to the Society of Missionaries to Africa Provincial Coucil serving in Tenafly, New Jersey. He then was assigned to the Bahamas until his arrival in London. Upon arrival in the London Diocese, Fr. Tom ministered at St. Michael's Parish, London as Associate Pastor until 1978. Fr. Tom was officially incardinated into the Diocese of London on January 19, 1978 and was appointed Chaplain to the Department of Veteran's Affairs and remained at that post until his retirement. After a rather short retirement, he left Canada and became the Associate Pastor at Saint Anne's Catholic Church in Pensacola, Florida in 1996. He remained at that position until his untimely death on March 19, 2005.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Jeremiah and Margaret O'FLAHERTY and siblings, Patricia, Declan and Delma. He is survived by his brother, Bill and his sister, Betty (Sr. Dympna), both residing in Ireland. He will be sadly missed by his many nieces, nephews, cousins and Friends in Ireland and North America. He was a man who lived his life day by day with devotion to his religion, family and service to his fellow man and will be greatly missed. A Memorial Service will be held n Monday, May 16th, 2005 at 7: 00 p.m. at St. Michael's Parish, London with the Most Reverend Bishop Ronald P. FAB BRO officiating.
