Friends and family wish CACY founder well in opening of gift shop

Caledon Enterprise

FIFTY YEARS AGOA public meeting was held in the Nobleton Community Hall chaired by local pharmacist John Bragg to discuss the possibility of erecting a 40-bed hospital in the area. Much discussion was bantered back and forth by the sparse crowd of 75 people in attendance. At the conclusion of the evening, a committee of district doctors consisting of local doctors headed by Dr. Robert Ritchie will explore the possibility of such an undertaking. Herb Lindsay, an Albion Township farmer who lives south of Bolton, drives a 1927 Chevrolet automobile. He was recently offered $1,000 for the vehicle which he flatly refused. Wildfield area Trans Canada Airline pilot Harry Bell, 37, is in Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton following the crash at Malton Airport of a TCA Viscount. There were 39 passengers on board the flight from Montreal. A blinding rainstorm was in the area at the time. Three passengers and a stewardess were also injured. One of the injured passengers was CBC radio farm broadcaster, Norm Garriock, of Woodbridge. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Piercey have left their farm home on the 4th Line, Albion to take up residence at 130 King Street West, Bolton. Their son, Roy, has taken over the operation of the family farm. It didn't take long but vandals broke two windows in the new school at Humber Grove. The Ontario Department of Highways have created plans for a new overpass on Highway 9 west of the Tottenham Road at Black Horse to travel over both the CNR and CPR lines. Nobleton columnist Mrs. Ken Mactaggart reports on a hunting accident with two young men. Bruce Peelar accidentally shot his friend Gerald Martinson in the leg. He was shooting across a pond when the bullet bounced off the water piercing Gerald's leg. Houston's General Store is offering one pair of first quality nylons for orders $5 and over. The stockings are valued at 25 cents. Homes are going fast on Bolton's south hill reports local realtor Harold F. Brown. There are two left in the Colborne subdivision and 320 remaining in the Gallo subdivision. Friends and neighbours of Daphne Lingwood wish her great success in the opening of a gift shop in her home north of Caledon East on Airport Road. She will feature handcrafts and paintings. There is a little ankle biter and the home of Norval and Margaret Patterson, Palgrave. They welcomed Kevin Brent on September 8. FORTY YEARS AGO Ian and Marilyn McEachern, of Martha Crescent, are avid gardeners and the front of their home is a showplace for all those interested in fall foliage. Rev. J. E. Lawlor, parish priest of the Wildfield-Bolton parish, is being transferred to the Parish of St. Philip, Oshawa. He had nine very active years here. The new priest will be Rev. H. O'Neill formerly of the St. Anthony Parish in Toronto. Over 300 boys have registered for minor hockey in Bolton this winter. There will be 25 teams in house league from Tyke to Bantam. The Tykes have 107 players registered and lead the way with eight teams. The coaches will be John Guaragna, Don Earl, Bill Wilson, Harry Van Dyk, Kenneth Ridd, Russell Roode, Jack Rowley and Donald Nelson. There are 97 Novice, 70 Peewees and 70 Bantams.
