New question and answer service

Catholic Insight is pleased to introduce the Canadian Catholic Information Network, which will provide a Question & Answer service for Catholics in Canada. It's under the supervision of our contributor Nick Burn. Anyone with access to the Internet will be able to submit questions to the panel of moderators at: (<http://members.home.net/njburn/ccinhome.htm>).

The following people have graciously volunteered their time and expertise to answer questions on the following topics:

General faith questions-moderated by Father Stephen Amesse. Father Stephen was born in Montreal in 1958. Prior to ordination, he had a ten-year career on Parliament Hill as a Parliamentary Assistant. Father Amesse studied at Holy Apostles College and Seminary, and has a theology degree from the University of Ottawa. Ordained to the priesthood on April 10, 1999, he was appointed Assistant Rector of Saint Patrick's Basilica in Ottawa and served there until July 1, 2000, when he was appointed Pastor of Holy Spirit Parish in Stittsville. He is currently Spiritual Director to the Archdiocesan Challenge Movement.

General faith questions en franca is--is moderated by Father Antoine, who has a Master's degree in Pastoral Theology, and is webmaster for Millennium_III (<http://mcsnet.incentre.net/atetu/>), a bilingual English/French site.

Canon Law questions--are moderated by Amy Jill Strickland. Amy, a canon law lawyer, has an M.A. in Theology from the Dominican House of Studies in Washington, D.C., and a J.C.L. from St. Paul University in Ottawa. Presently, she is a doctoral candidate in canon law at Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Belgium. Amy also volunteers on the "Catholics" board at AllExperts.com

History questions--are moderated by Suzanne Fortin. Suzanne lives in Ontario and has a B.A. in history from Laval University in Quebec City. She has been active in apologetics and interfaith discussion on the Net since 1995. She volunteers for the St. Michael Cyberspace Monastery's History Q & A Forum (<http://www.saint-mike.org>). She maintains Communion, a Canadian
