GRIEF AND LOSS RETREAT: One of the most important things that we can learn about grief or loss is not to underestimate it. The loss of a loved one or something through death, divorce, work or many other life situations and the adjustments that follow will demand our full attention for a while. The length of time it will take to process our grief depends on how willing we are to do the work that grief requires. Each of us deals with grief in a different way. Are we willing to take the risk to reflect on our grief and losses? We invite you to come and join us for this weekend retreat from November 8-10, 2013 at Immaculata. The facilitators will be Father Rocky Grimard, OMI, and Kathy Irr, RN. Retreat Fee is $200.00 per person. Please call (860) 423-8484 for registration information.

Thank you for your kind consideration of this request, and may God bless you in your ministry among God’s people.

Father John Hanley, OMI
