

1 of 1 matches

"henry maloney"

Find

Cancel

HASER

Cars Was His Regular ne Who Didn't Kicked.

e's sick in Memphis—I've got t to her!" Breaking away, he down the track.

Look out, you fool!" screamed Jim, starting after him over slippery ground. "Look out!" t was a horribly mangled body t Big Jim viewed at the city rgue. Little waves of dizziness nausea rippled through his y, and there was a peculiar ow feeling in his chest. He k his eyes off the whiteped body and looked about a chair. "It wouldn't be so ," he thought, "if I only n't—"

Just a hobo, I suppose?" asked police surgeon in charge. "No ntification on him."

No, I think you're wrong."

BROTHER AND SISTER GET DEGREES

HENRY MALONEY and FRANCES MALONEY, son and daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Maloney, of Eganville, who have graduated from the University of Toronto receiving Bachelor of Arts degree.
Mr. Maloney formerly attended Eganville Separate School, and Miss Maloney the Sacred Heart Convent at Eganville.

did a very good job on his wicker furniture with an ordinary household insect spray. He used quick drying enamel thinned with turpentine; used as it comes, the enamel is too thick to go through the spray. When spraying a chair, work from the front; hang sheets of heavy paper over the back of the chair to catch the enamel that goes through the meshes.

Ratepayers in Rush To Meet Tax Bills

With the first of the two annual tax payments due on Friday, June 18, the city collector's department is experiencing the beginning of the rush of ratepayers to pay their bills. Extra clerks are on duty. The collector, C. L. Anderson, reports heavy receipts.

George H. V. Dies in We

EDMOND
George H. van
eral men islature for Ed
died ton
it was learned
Born
Crysler's farm
Ontario,
Alberta
at Lethbr
Universit
law. He was a in 1915 and cre in 1929.

In 1923 and sel for the Al before the Roy Grain freight r

No Happiness In the Home When the Mother

The tired, worn out mother c