

6 CLERGY NAMED TO NEW CHARGES BY ARCHBISHOP

Rev. F. R. Wood, of the staff of St. Mary's cathedral, has been appointed chancellor of the archdiocese of Winnipeg, it was announced this week by His Grace Archbishop Sinnott. Father Wood will begin his new duties Sept. 1.

Five other appointments of clergy in the archdiocese of Winnipeg were announced by Archbishop Sinnott to take effect at the same date.

The pastors of Swan River and Birtle, Rev. Ethelbert L. Mullally and Rev. Arthur Plessers, will exchange parishes. Father Mullally will be stationed at Birtle and Father Plessers at Swan River.

Rev. Thomas Archbold, assistant at Portage la Prairie, becomes pastor of Dog Creek. He is succeeded at Portage la Prairie by Rev. Russell C. Manning, who also is charged with care of missions in his new parish, his first appointment since his ordination this spring.

Rev. William A. Jordan, who also receives his first appointment since ordination, is named assistant at St. Mary's cathedral.
