Associate Pastors — 1970-80

Quite a number of Associate Pastors have been with Monsignor Grespan during the years, moving on after gaining valuable experience with him.

Father Joseph Mariani had left in 1970, to become Associate Pastor of St. Mary's in Simcoe. In the same year Monsignor Morrison, a native son of the Parish, came to Sacred Heart, after a long and distinguished career in the Diocese of London; but failing health forced him to give up within a year.

In 1971, Monsignor Grespan invited Father J. Klezjeck, a Dominican, who had been stationed at Holy Cross Mission in Woodstock, to come to Sacred Heart. However, Father Klezjeck remained in the Parish only nine months, and Monsignor Grespan carried on alone. Father Josef Denys assisted on weekends, and Father Mike Dalton of Sacred Heart Villa in Courtland, came to Sacred Heart Parish whenever his duties at the Villa permitted. In 1974, Father James Blonde was named Associate Pastor in Ingersoll, where he remained for two years. In 1976, he was appointed Pastor of Our Lady of Mercy Parish in Sarnia. Father Denys returned in 1976, as Associate Pastor, and stayed for a year before being assigned to St. Boniface's at Zurich. Father Robert Morrissey was named Associate Pastor in the Fall of 1977. Monsignor Grespan and Father Morrissey together look after the spiritual and temporal needs of the Parish.

Father Robert Morrissey

Coming to Sacred Heart in 1977, Father Morrissey brought, and still brings, to the Parish a youthfulness, a joie-de-vivre which has given to the Parish, especially to the young people, tremendous enthusiasm and gratitude for his work on their behalf. His main concern and responsibilities are with the youth, but he enjoys a good relationship with all members of the Parish.
