

Aylmer, St. Thomas Parish Appointments Detailed

23 May 1969

Four appointments affecting the Roman Catholic parishes of Holy Angels Church, St. Thomas and Our Lady of Sorrows Church, Aylmer, were announced today.

Rev. M. S. Kaminski, assistant pastor of Holy Angels' Church for the past 2½ years, had been originally transferred to Saint John Brebeuf and Companions Parish in Delhi. Because of last minute changes, he will be transferred instead to St. Mary's Church, Tillsonburg. Father Kaminski was ordained to the priesthood in 1958.

Rev. E. Mucha, a Michaelite Father, has been released from his order for two years and will become associate pastor to Holy Angels' Parish, along with Rev. B. R. Laverty.

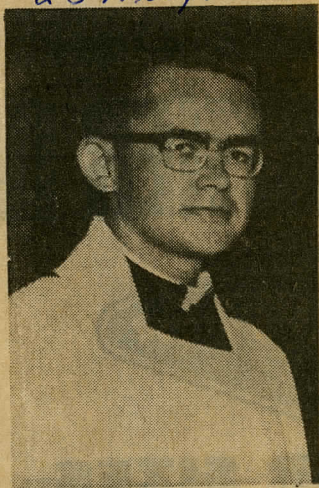

Rev. J. F. Blonde of Our Lady of Sorrows Parish, Aylmer, will study at the Divine Word Centre in London. He will be replaced in Aylmer by Rev. R. W. Reeves formerly of Saint Simon and Jude Parish, Belle River.

Father Blonde has served at Our Lady of Sorrows for the past three years. He was ordained four years ago.

Rev. Joseph G. Synder, a native of London, has been appointed vice-chancellor of the Roman Catholic Diocese of London.

Father Synder recently returned from a year of post-graduate study in Canon Law in Ottawa and Rome.

He succeeds Rev. L. W. Pare who doubled as secretary-general of the diocesan synod. Father Pare becomes rector of Saints Simon and Jude Parish, Belle River.
